

The police still are raising many excuses to drag the Lindloff case along for a few more weeks.

Nice weather yesterday, was it not. Especially around 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Capt. G. C. Steinman, skipper of a couple of fishing scows, took vacation yesterday. Took it in taxicab. Went to sleep. Wouldn't pay bill. S. Clark st. police station.

Mrs. Rene B. Morrow's trial for the murder of her husband, Charles B. Morrow, began today before Judge Kersten.

Morrow was found dead from a bullet wound on the rear porch of his home, 4545 S. Michigan ave., Dec. 28 last.

Health Commissioner Young told the congregation of the Hyde Park Congregational church what was the matter with the city administration last night.

It took Commissioner Young quite a long time. If it were thought that you yourself did not know what was the matter with the city administration, it might possibly be worth while to repeat what Dr. Young said.

But pshaw! You live in Chicago! What's the use? You know just as well as we do what's the matter with the administration!

Charlie Laparruque, former chef at the Hotel LaSalle confides that most of the dishes with French names for which one pays a high price in loop cafes, really are made from the cheaper parts of beef.

Peter Parl, 9209 Sholto st., shot and killed his wife Theresa, after a quarrel in which he accused her of looking too lovingly upon other men.

James B. Byrnes, fireman, injured at fire caused by lightning at drug store of A. J. Jehlik, 3401 W. 26th st. Will recover.

Frank Duray, 2222 W. 20th st., killed as he tried to jump on truck owned by Employers Union Lime Works Co., W. 19th and S. Lincoln.

Emil Norberg, 4619 Evans av., arrested for annoying Miss Elizabeth Walsh, a neighbor.

Overseer Voliva says Chicago is going to be destroyed as Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed.

Meantime Chicago goes right ahead, not worrying much about what Overseer Voliva prophesies for it.

Martin Conway, 520 Lincoln Parkway, fell asleep on his porch, thus losing a perfectly good $100 gold watch.

There has been nothing said about the weather for one column or more. So we say again—It's darned hot!

Peter Lech tried to shoot dam between York and Fox st. bridges over Fox river in canoe. Funeral tomorrow.

Burglars stole $100 worth of cigars and $12 in cash from bookstore of A. M. Carroll, 720 N. State st., but left rosary worth $50 lying on counter.

Robbing Carroll's store has become something of a popular amusement among burglars. It has been cleaned out 13 times in the last 11 years.