

Jake Stahl used 18 men, but they could make but nine hits off Steen and Gregg.

Cleveland only made 10 hits, but the league leaders helped out with seven errors.

Jiggs Donohue, former Sox first baseman, has been taken to the Ohio State Hospital for the insane from his home in Springfield, O. He is suffering from melancholia. Jiggs has been dependent ever since his wife sued him for divorce last winter.

Charley O'Leary, ex-Tiger, has been deposed as manager of the Indianapolis team of the A. A. Charles O'Day is now boss.

O'Leary has a two-year contract and will probably play short.

Charley Hemphill, former Yankee and Brown, removed as manager of the Atlanta Southern League Club, is to be used in a trade, probably with Kansas City. Charley may finally land back with the Yanks.

Pacific coast admirers of Abe Attell are kicking because Johnny Kilbane, the feather champ, refuses to fight before next fall. When it comes to getting into a ring often the bugs have no kick against Kilbane. Cleveland lad has done more scrapping since he held the title than most first-class mendo in a lifetime.

Ad Wolgast is a real modest and retiring young man. He only wants a guarantee of $46,000 for fighting Ritchie, Rivers and McFarland.

Leach Cross had to extend himself to get a shade on Tommy O'Keefe in New York last night.

No baseball in Chicago for two days.

The Chicago Printers' team beat Louis' Bears in a slugging match, 11 to 9. Harrison, with a double and triple, was the batting star.

Lippincott got revenge on Rau, German sprinter, at Berlin yesterday. The University of Pennsylvania flyer took the 200-meter dash in easy fashion. Mel Sheppard won the 1,000 meters, and Ralph Rose took a first in the weight events.

Charley Cutler, wrestler, was fined $5 yesterday for disorderly conduct, growing out of a dispute he had with a promoter at an amusement park.

Wolfe of Carolina Association has been sold to the Cleveland Naps.

Pontiac Juniors want games with all teams ranging from 9 to 11 years. 'Phone Canal 4597, Harry Sherman, manager.

Any 14-year-old team wanting the battle of its life can get it by calling Kedzie 7369.

The Day Book will gladly print challenges and scores from all amateur teams. Send 'em in.

