

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

London.—Dockworkers' strike called off today. No explanation given. Has lasted 10 weeks.

Wonder if Lord Devenport began thinking too much of that prayer for his death.

La Crosse, Wis.—3 men seriously injured by explosion of gas at La Crosse gas plant. $3,000 damages.

North Adams, Mass.—Andrew Whipple, Boston, killed and Mr. and Mrs. Brownell Bates, North Pownall, Vt., fatally injured when auto plunged from bridge into Hoosick creek.

St. Louis.—Arthur P. Bittner, Jr., has been arrested pending investigation of murder of father, who was shot from street while driving auto.

Young Bittner, who had recently been sent from home for refusal to work, was seen running near scene of crime.

Kansas City.—Big national elimination balloon races will start at 5 o'clock this afternoon. 8 balloons will be in air. 3 winners will represent U. S. at Berlin.

Cleveland, O.—Believed that young woman who applied for job at nurses' bureau and was refused might be Dorcas Snodgrass, missing Mt. Vernon, N. Y., society girl.

N. Y. police have received clue that girl started for west Saturday night.

London.—Dr. Ethel Smyth, suffragette, who was arrested and freed of charge of being implicated in plot to burn Colonial Secretary Harcourt's home, may sue for false arrest.

Herten Craggs, who is awaiting trial on same charge, says she also has alibi.

Logansport, Ind.—Frederick D. Landis, former representative from 11th Indiana district, has been selected as temporary chairman of state progressive convention that opens in Indianapolis Thursday.

Anderson, Ind. — Unknown man entered room of Grace McConnell, 23, as she slept and choked and attacked her. Girl in serious condition.

LaFayette, Ind. — Grover Ritchie, 20, stabbed and probably fatally wounded by Ernest Loman, 21. Fought over girl.

Brookville, Ind.—Unidentified man, weighing about 175 lbs., found on railroad tracks. Cause of death to be investigated.

Columbus, Ind.—Warrant for arrest of Henry McMillan, 13, sworn out on complaint of Joseph Watson, 10, whom he is said to have assaulted with intent to murder. Latter rendered unconscious by brick.

Detroit, Mich. — Policeman Lloyd Robinson shot and killed by Fred Milne, 21, whom he attempted to arrest as suspicious character. Slayer captured.

Milwaukee.—Adj.-Gen. C. R. Boardman, Wisconsin National Guard, denied charges that soldiers took part in drunken orgy at Camp Douglas.

London.—Prof. Smith, University of Minnesota, told Interna-