

tion of Progressive party met here today to name delegates to Chicago convention, presidential electors and state committee.

Not likely that state ticket will be named.

Washington.—Tariff revision fight switched from Senate to House today.

Washington.—Chairman Stanley of House steel trust investigating committee is being coached for his fight for new legislation to strengthen anti-trust laws by Attorneys Louis D. Brandeis and Egbert R. Reed.

Columbus, O.—John Taborn, 64, 42 years prisoner in Ohio penitentiary, has been allowed to go to prison farm at Morgan Station. If he likes it he will remain there until end of days.

Indianapolis.—Black carrier pigeon flew through open window into Gov. Marshall's office and remained there for several hours. Marshall is wondering if it means good or bad luck.

Milwaukee.—Ross Johnson, 22, Gertrude Charney, 19, and Louis Garber, 20, fined $45 each for dancing "Texas Tommy," "Hungry Jenny" and "Western Wiggle."

Washington.—House judiciary sub-committee, sent to Seattle to investigate Judge Hanford, returned today.

Declared that they forced judge to resign.

Denied that they made deal with Hanford by which he was to resign if they called off impeachment proceedings.

They will meet tomorrow and decide whether to dismiss proceedings.

St. Paul, Minn.—Minnesota's bull moose convention, 400 strong, are in session here. Entire state ticket may not be put in field.

Louisville, Ky.—Pulmotor saved life of 1-year-old Robert Parnett after infant had swallowed morphine tablets.

Kewanee, Ill.—Fire caused by explosion destroyed Henry county infirmary, near Cambridge. Occupants carried out safely.

Bern.—5 Basel tourist said they could climb Fletschorn, without guide. Have not been heard of since.

Narragansett Pier, R. I.—Workmen found $5,000 worth of jewels in ruins of cottages that were burned last Saturday.

Marinette, Wis.—Edward Jamiesan, Chicago, who was arrested for picking pockets during recent saengerfest, broke jail last night. Still at large.

Clarion, Pa.—Milton Buchert, 36, committed suicide by placing stick of dynamite under head and exploding it.

Beaumont, Minn.—Arthur Ottelle, professional balloonist, killed. Fell 500 feet. Bag burst when it hit light air.

Tallapoosa, Ga.—Mrs. Gates Richard O'Hare, St. Louis, socialist lecturer, tried to make corner speech. Mayor Pearce ordered her arrested. Refused to be arrested. Fire department turned on hose and drenched her with water.