

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO TODAY

Howard Garrity, 14, N. Ashland av. and Wellington st., accidentally shot and seriously wounded Edward Rossman, 14, 1710 Barry av., his companion. Arrested.

Miss Arina De Vore, 6109 Wentworth av., fell into river in rear of 76 W. Water st. Two policemen and two citizens formed human chain and pulled her out. Will recover.

16 negroes arrested at 4106 S. State st. in raid on dice game. Geo. P. Lee booked as keeper.

Chas. Stroder, 2704 Lowe av., is shy one horse. The horse, attached to wagon, was hit by State st. car at 40th st. Shot.

Wm. Deacon, 21 N. May st., teamster, found dead in bed. Tuberculosis.

Geo. L. Bowerman, 1332 Granville av., asked police to help him gain admittance to Chicago Athletic Club, where he searched for man he says insulted his wife. Identified John Berwin, 1541 Astor st., who says he does not know Bowerman's wife.

Henry and Theodore Kerr, 11 and 13, 438 S. Peoria st., and James Stevens, 12, found "armed to the teeth" looking for Indians on prairie near Maywood.

Harry Green tried to pick pocket of man on Halsted st. car at 18th st. It was a detective. Arrested.

Chicago postoffice is leading postoffice center in country for first time in history.

Alfred R. Goldman, bond salesman, says he will not eat or sleep until his wife returns. She was Miss Dorothy Antler, 2532 N. Kedzie av., before her marriage. Missing since Monday.

Oscar Johnson, chauffeur for Mrs. Albert Loeb, wife of vice president of Sears, Roebuck & Co., arrested for speeding. $100 bonds. Trial set for Sept. 18.

Miss Mary Werner, 1936 Howe st., robbed of handbag while on Ravenswood station of Northwestern "L."

Straw vote was taken in the audience at the Palace Music Hall last night: Roosevelt, 230; Wilson, 229; Taft, 97; Debs, 15.

Hyman Stein, 1626 W. Division st., carpenter, fell while at work on church at N. Albany av. and Walnut st. Seriously injured.

Mrs. C. F. Stimson, 60, 122 S. 64th av., Oak Park, found dead sitting in rocking chair. Dead nearly two days.

Anna Vavrinec, 8, 2650 S. St. Louis av., burned when her clothing caught fire Tuesday from a bonfire, is dead.

Dr. W. S. Schroyer, 927 Noble st., found supposed dynamite bomb on rear porch. Took it to the police station. 3 dozen eggs.

Former Police Inspector A. F. Campbell, 60, hit by auto of T. F. Monahan, 51 E. 44th st., at La Salle st. and Jackson blvd. Severely injured.

Rev. Edward Kowelski, rector of St. Mary Magdalena church, S. Chicago; Rev. Mr. Czajkowski, rector of Roman Catholic church,