

trying to deceive a girl into marrying you with another man's license."

"But—"

"Beat it," said Sweitzer. "If the right man doesn't show up for that dollar, no one gets it."

And that's the position of affairs now, and a fine pickle August got himself and Miss Samp and Schmidt and Miss Olsen into with his little game of pinochle.

POST CARD ENDS MYSTERY

The police and postal authorities here were today notified that the murder of seven-year-old Joseph Josephs, of Buffalo, N. Y., probably was in hiding in Chicago.

The only clue to the murderer is a postal card received in Buffalo by the boy's father, telling him where the body could be found. The postal card was sent from Chicago. The writing was in a disguised hand. The card is being forwarded here.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 16.—The body of Joseph Josephs, 7 years old, was dug out of a vault at Lackawanna, a suburb of this city, today.

The boy was the son of George Josephs, a Lackawanna grocer. He disappeared October 12. His father offered a reward of $1,000 for his recovery, but no trace of him could be found by police or private detectives.

Yesterday the father received an unsigned postal card from Chicago telling him that the boy had been murdered and the body hidden in a vault. A search discovered the body, just where the card said it would be.

GIRL ROBBED IN LOOP

Shortly before 12 o'clock today, two men held up and robbed Miss Katherine Shehan of $566 in the very heart of the loop district.

Miss Shehan is cashier of the Federal Press Co., on Federal court. The money was to be used to pay the employes of the company.

Miss Shehan drew the money at the Central Trust & Savings bank. She was just entering the Press company's office, when the two young bandits attacked her, seized her handbag and fled.

The bag, with only $18 left in it, was found shortly afterwards, but the robbers have not yet been arrested.

DECLARES MARTIAL LAW

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 16.—Gov. Glasscock again declared martial law in the Kanawha coal fields today.

Adjutant General C. D. Elliot left here today with soldiers on a special train for Cabin Creek Junction.

Martial law was made necessary by the wounding of two strikers by railway special detectives Thursday night.

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight and Sunday for Chicago and vicinity; not much change in temperature; moderate northwest winds.
