

captains and lieutenants. Chief McWeeny and Assistant Chief Schuettler may belong.

Eight governors joined in nation-wide crusade on gambling launched two weeks ago by fraternal orders here.

City Comptroller J. E. Traeger reports retrenchment of city expenses will be necessary even should legislature amend Juul law.

Now that price of eggs have dropped, women's egg club is facing large loss. Darn the trusts, anyhow.

Gov.-elect E. F. Dunne has promised to give "favorable consideration" to project for state colony for epileptics.

Union labor pleaded with trustees of drainage board for unionizing sanitary district enterprises. Got little encouragement. Board in past has favored "open shop."

Joseph Nagi, 616 W. 13th st., struck by auto Saturday. Died today.

Mrs. James Vick, aged widow, 3039 Armour av., killed by 39th st. car at Armour av.

Frank Bowers, 4247 Cottage Grove av., arrested when auto killed Zabelle Gurian, 8, exonerated by coroner's jury.

"Smiling Billy" Gibbons, former cop at Rush st. bridge, who shot and killed himself, did it accidentally according to coroner's jury.

Frank Bradshaw, 72, dead. Heart failure.

Dr. J. M. Thomas, pastor Plymouth Congregational church, Newark, O., has accepted pastorate of Ravenswood Congregational church.

J. A. LaPoint, 630 N. 53rd av., seriously hurt. His auto truck and another machine collided.

Axel Boy, 114 E. Ohio st., janitor, found unconscious in bed. Gas. Revived. Accidental.

Adam Slapets, boarder of Mrs. Gladis Jousnz, 235 E. 115th st., fined $100 and costs for putting landlady's husband out of the house.

Martin Lawson, negro, arrested after attacking pedestrians at S. State and Harrison sts. Says he was preparing to become a pugilist.

Wm. Allen, a shop window "human doll," has disappeared. Police searching.

H. R. and R. H. Bumpass, brothers, Anna Hoffman and Nick Marcella, indicted by grand jury. Arson.

Carl Marx, 905 Laffin st., chauffeur, seriously injured G. Kamery, 58, 1638 N. Ridgeway ave., with his auto. Arrested.

Dr. J. L. Shaw, formerly of Martinton, Ill., on trial, charged with bigamy. First wife, Mrs. Helen Shaw, nee Olson, is complaining witness.

Schooner Butcher Boy has arrived at Waukegan.

L. B. Grossman fined $100 and costs on charge of using mails to defraud relatives of dead persons.

A. R. Flett, 430 Marion st., Oak Park, is dead. Despondent over death of wife a week ago.

Association of wholesale merchants have agreed to flood market with cold storage eggs and