

EVERYWHERE'S NEWS IN TABLOID FORM

El Paso, Texas.—Brigadier Gen. E. Z. Steever, commanding Second cavalry Brigade on Mexican patrol duty, was retired by War Department.

Washington.—A. C. Parkinson, principal clerk of senate, quit his job when salary was cut $2,000.

Paris.—Military honors will be paid to memory of J. Pierpont Morgan when his body arrives at Havre tomorrow.

Califonia, Pa. — Burglar found child's savings bank with motto, "In God We Trust." Wrote underneath, "So did I—once." Did not touch the money.

Toulon.—Five of submarine Turquoise crew swept overboard. Drowned.

Philadelphia.—Discovery of deaf mute as a juror led to new trial in common pleas court.

Poughkeepsie.—Vincent Astor will use hundreds of acres of Ferncliffe farm to experiment in growing alfalfa and other grains.

New Haven.—Prof. W. H. Taft's first day at Yale was spent attending chapel service and answering "present" at faculty meeting.

Peacock Point, L. I.—Sons of Henry P. Davison, partner of Morgan, while trying to warm father's country house, set fire to flue and mansion burned down.

Hartford, Conn.—Connecticut legislature yesterday voted 150 to 74 women voting. Two years before question can be brought to legislature again and six years before vote on constitutional amendment can be called.

London.—Miss Zelig Emerson, American suffragette, is so seriously ill through being forcibly fed through the nose in Holloway jail that she is now fed through a mouth tube.

Kewanee, Ill.—James Porter, 76, wealthy lumberman and land owner, dead. Lived here 57 years.

Fairview, Okla.—Grant Leslie, wife, son, 9, and their horses burned to death in prairie fire.

New Rochelle, N. Y.—Edward Fogarty, Ansonia, Conn., killed by fall and electric shock while measuring bridge over New Haven railroad. D. E. Brockett, Kansas City, badly burned.

Buffalo.—Fifty toughs drove train crew away with revolvers and looted wrecked cars of Lehigh Valley train. Wreck and theft loss $200,000. Four trainmen injured in collision.

Bellefontaine, O.—Word received here that President Wilson has taken up matter of pardon for John H. Patterson, president National Cash Register company, who was recently convicted of violation of anti-trust law. His relief work in Dayton flood believed to be cause for pardon.

Denver.—J. B. Bona fined $100 for exceeding speed limit in auto hearse. Had no corpse at the time.

Salem, Ore.—David Errett, for nine years pastor of Christian church, learned that a petition for his recall was being circulated. Resigned.

Portland, Ore.—By papering his finger tips, a well-dressed man prevented Bertillon officers securing his finger prints.

Los Angeles.—"Don't touch my new baby and go away from here," cried Mrs. Mary Lehmann from her bed to two inquisitive cops. They unrolled the baby's blankets and found two jugs of booze.

Sheridan, Wyo.—Ten men killed, 12 injured when two Burlington trains crashed head-on.

Racine, Wis.—Lightning struck new barn of P. H. Nan, north of Franksville. Burned to ground with 4 horses, 7 cows and 25 tons of hay.

WEATHER FORECAST

Showers this afternoon and tonight for Chicago and vicinity; colder tonight; Friday unsettled and colder; brisk southerly shifting to northerly winds by Friday morning.