

Nelson monument and ringing bells to attract crowd.

Atlanta.—Enrico Caruso, tenor, broke down and wept after singing before convicts in federal prison. Julian Hawthorn wrote a poem to the tenor.

New York.—With no one at wheel and injured man lying helpless inside, auto ambulance "ran away." Narrowly missed injured several persons.

Budapest.—Angered because committee at spring art exhibit hung his picture in corridor instead of in the salon, Anton Berkes, artist, slashed his canvas with a pocket knife.

New York.—L. McCormick, actor in melodrama, suicide Poison. Ill. health.

Albany.—A Down-street ferryboat, running between Troy and Green Island, went over the State Dam today and three young women reported drowned.

Melville, La.—With water at within 3 inches of top of levee today, a repetition of last year's disaster, when the waters topped the embankment, is feared before night.

Adrian, Mich.—Seneca, village of 200, south of here, threatened with destruction by fire. All wires down. Aid sent.

Washington.—Pres. Wilson considers danger of complications in Japanese situation past. California waiting for Bryan.

New York.—After attending Buffalo Bill Wild West show. Wm. V. Robbins, Yale graduate and lawyer, took his son, William, 9, home and shot and severely wounded him. Then killed himself by cutting his throat.

San Francisco.—Chan Yin Tang, envoy to U. S. from China, will be asked to do something to end tong warfare on Pacific coast.

San Francisco.—Portuguese and Russian immigrants from Hawaii are flocking to California at rate of 500 a week or around 25,000 a year.

New York.—Mrs. Matilda Wynne, colored, Oyster Bay, L. I., dead. Left $50,000 to husband and other relatives. She earned the money scrubbing, washing and ironing.

Douglas, Ariz.—E. L. Johnson, mining engineer of Tucson, committed suicide by poison because he had revealed secrets of the Masonic Order.

Milwaukee.—Arthur Furkert, clerk in local postoffice, sentenced to one year and one day in prison for rifling parcel post package.

Natchez, Miss.—After sickness of V. C. Spencer had caused his marriage to Miss Ione Wentworth to be postponed for six weeks, his bride dropped dead while walking to the altar. The bridegroom collapsed and may die.

Brussels.—The session of the Socialist Congress today voted to abandon the manhood strike, and go back to work on the government's promise, through a chamber of deputies resolution, to grant the electoral reforms asked by the workmen.

Springfield, Ill.—E. B. Bortness, grocer, sentenced to a year in pen by jury. Charged with mistreating a 14-year-old girl. Six other indictments stand against him.

St. Louis.—Although armed with a knife, negro burglar was no match for Baptiste Bonzani, an infuriated Greek cafe keeper, who found the intruder rifling his cash register today. Used ketchup bottle to knock the burglar out.

Springfield, O.—That A. B. Smith will take the witness stand in his fight against the charge of poisoning his first wife, was expected today.

Milwaukee.—$3,000 loss when one wing of local schoolhouse burned. Children fled out. No one hurt.

Milwaukee.—Stan. Sybilski found lying dead on floor of his room. Suicide. Razor. Throat. Domestic troubles.

Peoria, Ill.—James McKinney suicide after writing will. Rope. Cancer. Father did same four years ago.