

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO TODAY

"Jack" Johnson dismissed in municipal speeder's court, late yesterday after he paid $2 costs and had purchased owner's license for his auto. Was arrested several days ago.

Mrs. Anna Arrandt leaned from window in home of Mrs. Mary Czhalinski, 1411 Emma st., for fresh air. Fell. Fatally hurt.

$100,000 loss in fire on northwest corner N. Michigan av. and E. South Water st., 4-story building occupied by Sherman Bros., tea, coffee and spice importers.

An unknown drunken cop had time of his life yesterday keeping away from the whole loop police force. Phone call to station said he was lying in doorway. When patrol arrived he had beat it. No one was able to get his number. Believed to have been from a north side station.

Miss Maude O'Brien, 5500 S. State st., entered Englewood police station carrying package of chewing gum, bunch of violets and a frog which she said she wanted to give to John McGuire "the nicest man she ever saw." Frog got loose and spilled ink all over the sergeant's reports. She was locked up. Question as to her sanity.

F. J. Hunkle, Jr., 705 W. North av., seriously hurt and Miss Luella Lichaal, 1973 N. Halsted st., riding on rear of Hunkle's motorcycle, severely bruised when the machine struck auto.

Major Funkhouser, second deputy superintendent of police, is to get a dog-catching auto.

Marriage of George S. Thompson, 44, negro, accused on inducing Emma Hansen, 16, to go to Niles, Mich., January 13, has been annulled. He is in jail facing serious charges under Mann act and state act.

Gabriel Rosenthal, 24, Plymouth Hotel, 4700 Evanston av., arrested charged with passing worthless checks. Inherited $50,000 two years ago.

Everett Patten, 5310 Wayne av., seriously hurt by car.

The Day Book wishes to correct a brief in last night's paper about a Patrick Gunkel, 19, 1769 W. 12th st., being arrested while in act of holding up A. Frapersten, 1327 N. Oakley blvd. Gunkel was arrested when he appeared at a police station to bail out a friend of his and was at work at the time of the holdup.

Louis Krauthahn, 43, saloonkeeper, 1891 Maud av., missing. Had $500 with him. Police searching.

Temperature was at 85 degrees for about an hour yesterday. Some hot, eh?

Saloons of Rothschild Bros., 641 W. Madison st.; Harry Frank, 569 W. Madison st.; Kaplan Bros., 571 W. Madison st., and A. Davidson, 619 W. Madison st., raided. 40 men arrested. Charged with disorderly conduct.

Robert O'Neil, 24, 432 Englewood av., mistook poison for headache powders. Undertaker.

Rose Petrie, two days old, Joliet, burned to death when dress caught fire from ashes of stove.

Ralph Larson, 4, 2113 Giddings st., seriously injured by street car.

Frank Smith, 44, 2476 Archer av., butcher, found dead in room. Gas. Believed accidental.

Russel Webb, 16, farmer boy, Joliet, touched wire fence with plow. Fence was charged with electricity. A. Rhodes, motorman, cut down telephone pole that was supplying the current.

Unidentified Italian, 30, found unconscious at Division st. and Oak Park av. Had taken poison. Attempted suicide. Hospital. May die.

Max Rehman, 641 Garfield av., steamship agent, arrested charged with embezzlement.

Local union No. 85 of I. W. W. barred from giving dance at 760 Milwaukee av. tonight. Asserted they had no right to the premises.