

TEN COMPANIES OF MILITIA PROTECT THE ALLEGED SLAYER OF THIS GIRL

Atlanta, Ga., May 5.—Ten companies of state militia were hurriedly called together to protect Newt Lee, a negro watchman, and Leo M. Frank, superintendent of a pencil factory, held in connection with the brutal murder of Mary Phagan, a pretty pencil factory worker. Governor Brown says he will use every Georgia soldier to prevent the storming of the county jail by lynching parties.