

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Greenwich, Conn.—Adele Ritchie, actress, will marry Charles Nelson Bell, New York importer, Friday, June 13, 1913.

New York.—Jere Knode Cooke, former pastor of St. George's Church, Hempstead, L. I., and Floretta Whaley, girl he eloped with six years ago, will be married at once. Mrs. Cooke divorced husband.

Tarrytown, N. Y.—Special police guard home of Wm. Rockefeller against violence at hands of 100 laborers who are making trouble about their pay.

Springfield.—Governor Dunne denied rumor that he is dead.

Cincinnati, O.—Geo. B. Cox, recently acquitted on charge of abstracting note from assets of Cincinnati Trust Co., notified he will have to appear in court to face indictment charging misapplication of funds.

Granite City, Ill.—J. J. Williams crushed between two cars attached to cab in which brother-in-law, Rex Rebor, was engineer.

Denver.—Leaving a farewell note that her inability to find the "love that falleth not" was reason for act, Miss Stella E. Randolph, 41, seamstress, committed suicide by taking mercury tablets.

Detroit, Mich.—Five injured, two probably fatally, when freight and work car on Detroit United Railway collided.

Washington.—A. L. Wechsler, news agent at Watertown, N. Y., returned lead pencil left by Sec. of Navy Roosevelt when writing telegram.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Mrs. Amy Nuckols, wife of former racing king, dead. Heart failure.

Hammond, Ind.—Jacob Layman, Gary, found "not guilty" of robbery, started to walk out of court. Called back. Judge signed wrong verdict. Got seven years.

City of Mexico.—Reported that Zapata caused Col. Pascual Orozco, father of former chief rebel, to be put to death.

Lacrosse, Wis.—New ruling just passed by board of police orders police to be polite to prisoners.

New York.—C. (Ned) Wayburn, actor and manager, bankrupt.

Pittsburg.—S. L. Heeter, Superintendent of Schools, dismissed for immorality.

—o—o—

TO-DAY'S ODD NEWS

Aurora, Ill.—"Slide, Tillie, slide," was cry of bleacherites when two teams of girls, one wearing white and the other blue stockings, staged a baseball game.

Joliet, Ill.—After Magistrate Connors had fined her $25 for disorderly conduct, Mary Fatjnik attacked him with garden hose.

New York.—Meyer Bellport, 16, walked into police station and offered three coppers for a bed. Said they were last of 5,000 pennies he had stolen.

New York.—While arguing over taxi bill of $8 Phillip Bannia fell out of car with $1,200 in currency clutched in hand. Arrested for intoxication.

East Palestine, O.—Poodle dog owned by Mrs. Henrietta Daltonfeld was shot by Mrs. Venetia Hardy after it chewed up several lace curtains and century-old Bible. Mrs. Hardy was arrested.

Cleveland.—One death and two prostrations yesterday. Hottest June 6 in forty years.

Brownsville, Pa.—Wm. T. Daugherty, who has attended game in Pittsburgh once every week for 20 years, saw the Pirates win for first time on Thursday.

—o—o—

"I hear the New Haven railroad has decided to have no more rear end collisions." "That's what one of the officials told me. He said they had taken off all the rear cars."