

Murray Scott, who left $5,000,000 to Lady Sackville, says she used to mesmerize Sir John and use him as a slave. Society attending trial and bringing its lunch.

New York.—Tank steamer Mohawk, carrying 200 tons of fuel oil, exploded off Staten Island. Five killed, six injured.

LaPorte, Ind.—Bonnie Duffey of Chicago and Wm. Hamilton killed when auto driven by Duffey went into ditch. Two others injured.

Kansas City, Mo.—Industrial council recommended general strike of all union crafts in Kansas City. 25,000 involved.

Milwaukee.—Oscar Wambhal, who left wife because after being crippled he would not be burdened on her, found by wife here. She convinced him he wasn't a burden.

San Francisco.—Japanese consulate here calls expulsion of Jap fruit pickers from Hemet, Cal., a "prank of overgrown schoolboys."

London, Ont.—Dr. Frank Billings of Chicago bitterly denounced widespread manufacture of vaccines in United States.

Milwaukee.—Pansy Reynolds, 19, who came here from Decatur, Ill., with man who promised to marry her, stranded and penniless. Man gone.

New York.—Miss Gail Kane, who arrived here on Mauretania after trip abroad, says the "chemise expose," latest Parisian fashion, compared to which the peekaboo waist is a regular arctic costume, is on its way here.

Hammondsport, N. Y.—Harold F. McCormick's flying boat rescued two men from broken-down launch on the lake here.

Newport, Eng.—Mrs. Margaret H. Mackworth, daughter of Davis A. Thomas, coal king, and wife of Capt. Humphrey Mackworth of Royal Monmouthshire engineers, sentenced to 14 days for putting explosives in mail box.

San Francisco.—Mrs. May Bogardus Tower, legally separated wife of millionaire iron master, has demanded that government prosecute her husband under white slave act. Tower is living "an idyllic existence" with Elsa Garrett on Tower ranch near Buena Vista.

New York.—Mrs. Robert H. Elder, suffraget leader of Brooklyn, granted permit to carry revolver.

New York.—New trial for Edith St. Clair's suit for $22,500 against Klaw & Erlinger granted by Supreme Court Justice Guy. Miss St. Clair won first suit, then admitted she had testified falsely.

ROBBERS BREAK WINDOW AND ROB JEWELRY STORE

Rings and watches valued at $1,000 were stolen from a show window of Roth & Block's jewelry store, 144 N. State street, early today when burglars shattered the plate glass and cleaned several trays of their valuables.

No one saw the burglars at work. The instrument with which they broke the window was not found. Policeman Charles Fisher of the central station found a bracelet on the street near the store, and, upon investigating, discovered the robbery. Policemen and private detectives who were near the store did not hear the crash of breaking glass.

MIDDLE WEST BEING SCORCHED

Weather bureau this morning held no hope of relief from torrid wave and predicted thermometer might go to 100 before night. Nine persons have died because of the stifling heat. Dozens have been prostrated and suffering among babies and aged people, especially in the West Side tenement districts, is terrible.

Free ice is still being given away at the distributing stations of the Consumers' Ice Co.

Fifteen persons are dead in Cleveland and five in Milwaukee from heat. The entire Middle West is being scorched.