

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Police are searching for Fred C. Mayer, 1456 W. 15th st., who disappeared Wednesday with $250. Wife fears robbery.

James Drager, 8, drowned while swimming in lake at foot of 78th st.

Ferdinand Dosin, 3417 N. Paulina, routed two robbers at corner of Paulina and Wilson av. when they ordered him to halt.

Seven men complained to Capt. Thomas Meagher, Desplaines st. station, that Chicago Employment Agency, 32 S. Canal st., as fee for job. Given worthless tickets for train to take them to mythical job. Detectives found agency closed.

Matthew Hivaty, 1357 Fairfield av., committed suicide by inhaling gas. Despondent over ill health.

John Greer, vaudeville actor, 47 E. Van Buren st., fined $25 and costs for flirting with Lillian Rommel, 15, 1319 N. Rockwell st., at Congress and Wabash.

Just before adjournment regular grand jury passed a resolution advising the appointment of a special grand jury to probe charges of fraud and irregularities in connection with the erection of the new County Hospital.

Case of Edward and Paul Covitz and Joseph Clarke, accused of arson conspiracy in burning of Covitz Bros.' Fifth av. clothing store, will go to jury today.

Yeggmen blew safe in paint store of W. W. Roberts, 6712 Wentworth av., escaping with money and papers.

Five deaths resulted from heat yesterday.

President McCormick will demand full investigation of County Hospital contract.

Three men arrested for attempted kidnapping of Angelina Maggio, 1123 Milton av.

George Inglesman, 807 Sheridan rd., found 2-weeks-old baby boy on front steps. St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum.

Three Cicero safoonkeepers arrested for running slot machines.

Election Commissioner Czarnecki will turn over all his data to special grand jury.

Capt. Arthur Stiles, west park board, will begin campaign to exterminate mashers in Wicker Park.

Frank Girger, 2010 Fowler st., knocked down at N. Robey and Fowler sts. by auto owned and driven by Wm. Doll, 919 N. Robey st.

Mrs. Jimmy Ward, wife of well-known Chicago aviator, tried suicide at Congress Hotel with alcohol. Failed.

Edward F. Young, former treasurer of Chicago, Terre Haute & Southeastern railroad, pleaded guilty to embezzling $53,000. Sentenced to one to five years in Joliet by Judge Petit.

Adelcor J. Petit elected chief justice of Circuit Court to succeed Jesse A. Baldwin. Judge Pinckney remains at Juvenile Court.

Council finance committee hired Miles J. Devine to defend policemen brought up before trial board. $3,000 per year job.

Robert E. Burke told election commissioners it was common knowledge that votes were bought on North Side.

Mrs. Florence Sopp, 24, 127 W. Erie st., tried suicide. Poison. Scrap with husband. Will recover.

Body of Louis Denison, 1035 Greenwood ter., drowned with two other men and woman June 19, recovered in drainage canal yesterday.

Josephine Said and Lucy Bertsche, both 17, wards of House of Good Shepherd, sought on charge of stealing clothing from St. Joseph's Hospital.

John Lebricola, deputy sheriff, 717 Polk st., had his divorced wife, Lucy Ross, and John Generalla, Milwaukee labor agent, arrested.

City council finance committee has delayed action on proposal to approp-