HOT AFTER GOV. SULZER

New York, Aug. 9.—Frawley committee through with investigation of Gov. Sulzer's stock investments and failure to report all contributions to his campaign fund. Will report to legislature and recommend impeachment of governor.

Gov. Sulzer will make his reply next week. He expects impeachment proceedings. Tammany is after him and controls legislature. Expects to have him fired within a month.

New York newspapers, controlled mostly by Big Business, are demanding that Gov. Sulzer resign.
