

eph Russa, 19, 2321 Wentworth, cut in fights.

Unidentified man, 60, killed by Evanston "L."

James Gaffney, laborer, 609 N. State st., killed by car.

Carl Nelson, 1432 N. Clark st., struck by car. Thrown 10 feet. Cut on head.

Three insane men left Chicago State Hospital without leave. None dangerous.

J. K. Miller and W. Caldwell released by Judge Mahoney in sunrise court.

Bismarck, bull dog, adopted baby Efron, 1, 1060 Maxwell st. Mother wanted baby. Dog bit her. Dog jailed.

Edw. Leary, 43, 1422 W. 14th st., struck by auto. Slightly injured.

Thirteen women arrested in raids last night in South Side district.

State tax board called a farce. It's said that personal property committee has made no change in assessment for several years.

Patrick Coyle, 75, 1466 Indiana av., walked through second story window. dead. Somnambulist.

Mrs. Mary Timlin, 43, killed. Fell from third-story window.

John Bataglia, 815 Milton av., stabbed 21 times. Died. Giochiono Sciarra wanted.

Mrs. Helen G. Alexander, 45, negro, arrested. Unable to tell address. Had $185.

Dr. John Harper, 3638 Forest av., robbed. $36, ring and pin valued at $360.

Samuel Bomble robbed by three negroes. $12 gone.

Frank Kilke, 3252 S. Morgan, robbed. $2 and $25 watch.

Robert J. Campbell, 117 E. 20th st., suicide in Boston. Despondent. Quiff job. Lost $250,000.

A. H. Harding, 1401 LaSalle av., arrested. Larceny. Said to have taken $18 and ring.

Eight hundred babies born in County Maternity Hospital in 1913. Not a mother lost her life.

Ostensorium dedicated for blessings at St. Rita's Church. 300 widows said to have given wedding rings for it.

Judge Fry claims speeders have pull. Advocates jail sentences. Blames prosecuting officers for lack of convictions.

Bishop McGavick condemns rag-time and teaching of sex hygiene. Says people "would suffer from epidemic of impurity."

Chauncey C. Foster sued again. Claims he is "love goat." Has already paid $3,500 alimony.

Einer Kirkeby, 38, 3214 W. North av., dead. Gas.

Chas. Dooley, negro held at Woodlawn station, confessed burglary. Police believe him murderer.

Mothers' Club endorsed sex talk and adopted resolution to that effect.

HOW DO YOU WANT HIM TO POP THE QUESTION?

A young lady who lives on Flrimond street says that, to win her, her Prince Charming has got to say: "Listen little girl. I have a nice cottage and money enough to take us through life. Let's get married. I have the rings."

That's brief and to the point, all right.

No, come on girls. Confess! How would you like your lover to ask you to be his partner for life? Write you ideas and send them to the Proposal Editor of The Day Book. We will keep your name confidential. Send 'em in right away.

South Bend, Ind.—Mail valued at between $80,000 and $70,000 stolen from eastbound Michigan Central train.

Denver, Col.—Major Oliver P. Wiggins, 90, Denver's first resident pioneer, scout and soldier, dead.

Washington.—Supreme Court ruled proceeds from sale of mine ores are "taxable income."

Detroit, Mich.—290 cases of diphtheria on record.