

EVERYWHERE'S NEWS IN TABLOID FORM

Springfield, Ill.—Destitute man who gave name as Wm. Riley Waggoner believed to be Charles Henry of Woodson, who fled after killing Chas. Ezard and Everett Crain and Crain's 5-year-old son.

Paris.—French government asked Chamber of Deputies to appropriate $400,000 for official representation at San Francisco Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Indianapolis.—Salary of John P. White, pres. United Mine Workers of America, raised by convention from $3,000 to $4,000 a year.

St. Louis.—Ora Shelton Stutsman, formerly of Springfield, Ill., fined $200 and costs by Federal Judge Dyer. Pleaded guilty to charges of using mails to defraud.

Joliet, Ill.—Discovered gang of counterfeiters working in state penitentiary. Turned out counterfeit dollars, quarters and nickles, including late Buffalo design, while working in machine shop.

Cleveland.—Charged with robbing parcel post packages while driving mailwagon, Wm. O. Schopen, 17, arrested.

Wausau, Wis.—First marriage license under Wasserman test for 3 fee issued to Harvey L. Chase and Margaret Lois Wandell.

Washburn, Wis.—Lafayette Stowe, 85, lost two days. Found with both hands and one foot frozen. May die.

Terre Haute, Ind.—Mayor Donn M. Roberts and five other leading citizens indicted for alleged election frauds will answer Feb. 16.

Washington.—Naval tug Potomac on way to rescue crews of fishing boats jammed in ice at Bay of Island. Will require over 3 days to make trip.

Fulton, Mo.—"If a man doesn't read the newspapers his qualifications to sit in any kind of case can be seriously questioned," according to Judge David H. Harris.

Jefferson City, Mo.—Warden McClunge filed suit in 3 courts each for $20,000 against New St. Louis Star for articles recently printed concerning discipline in penitentiary.

Murphysboro, Mo.—John L. Smith, Mobile & Ohio yard detective in East St. Louis, acquitted of charge of killing Special Officer Ivy Kelly in Carbondale last July. Pleaded self defense.

Washington.—Interstate Commerce Commission asked Congress to appropriate $2,000,000 for work of physical valuation of railroads and telephone and telegraph lines next year.

London.—Archbishop of Canterbury, head of Angelican Church, promised Mrs. Dacre Fox, leader of Women's Social and Political Union, he would consider women's protest against forcible feeding of women prisoners.

Greeley, Col.—Damages estimated at $100,000 resulted from breaking of Horse Creek reservoir of Henrylyn Irrigation system.

Washington.—Nearly all government officials from Pres. Wilson down wore red carnations yesterday in memory of late President McKinley. It was his birthday.

Pekin.—Worship of Heaven and Confucius became state religion of Chinese republic by bill making that religion of president of China.

Vera Cruz.—Reported La Emestrio De al Garza and Gen. Ramon Carrona, two distinguished Mexican lawyers, will go to Washington unofficially to endeavor to convince Pres. Wilson of Huerta's claim to recognition.

Washington.—Announcement that Pres. Oneste has formally resigned presidency of Haiti cabled to navy department.

Shanghai.—Large section of city of Luan-Chow sacked and burned by brigands.

Washington.—Fortifications appropriations bill carrying $5,000,000, including $457,000 for new sea coast