

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Federal government will take up case of Bessie Huntus, found at 2023 Indiana av. last night by Kate Adams. White slavery thought.

L. Walters, aged man, badly hurt in death strip between two State st. cars at Monroe st.

William H. Manz, Minneapolis, fell from car. Left hip broken.

Thompson's restaurant, 44 S. Clark st., raided by highwaymen. $35 gone.

D. K. Boylan, 3228 Flourney st., attacked by three men. Knocked unconscious. Lost $300. Taken to hospital with fractured skull.

Russell Babb, 12, 1908 N. Kaskaskia av., missing.

Patrolman Aleck Johnson grabbed runaway horse. Dragged half block.

Six boys bitten by dogs in S. Chicago. None seriously injured.

Epilepsy due to mad dog bit is Dr. Patrick Machler's theory. Will try Pasteur treatment on epileptics.

Chicago railways fined $700 by Judge Dolan under cold car ordinance.

Squad of patrolmen hunted for burglars at 947 W. Harrison st. Found one-day-old baby wrapped in newspaper.

Donald Downey, 5, 4116 Broadway, struck by auto. Internally injured.

Albert Wall, 12, 5218 S. Mashfield av., struck by street car. Condition serious.

Affidavits declaring uniformed policeman circulated second petition for license for Bristol Cafe to be sent to Chief Gleason.

Total registration 693,624. Women 218,643.

Dr. Boyce W. Knight, 1042 Argyle av., arrested. Alleged bigamy. Released on bond.

Third Ward Civic League will meet at Forestville Public School, 45th st. and Lawrence av., Friday, March 20, at 8 p. m.

Man believed to be John Lipare, 880 Milton av., shot and killed by two men on Larrabee st. "Black Hand" suspected. John Bavano held as assailant.

Chi. Plan Commission approved new Pennsylvania terminal measure. Will urge council to pass ordinance.

Dr. Frances Dickinson will speak at Grace Church open forum, Wabash av. and 15th st., Sunday evening, March 22. Subject: "Social Injustice at the Beginning."

Mrs. Charlotte N. Condict, in divorce suit, claimed hubby tried to turn daughter against her.

Miss Harriet Vittum will speak before Workers' Suffrage Alliance at Smith Hall, Hull House, Friday, March 20, 8 p. m.

27,000 floppers accommodated and 17,000 meals served in two months at new Rufus Dawes Hotel. Deficit for period $583.

Mrs. Harriet Janney, grandmother of Virginia Ford, 3, the million-dollar baby, won fight over custody of child. Got away on habeas corpus writ before father of child arrived.

Columbia Amusement Co. fined $2,500 for receiving rebates for transportation of theatrical companies.

Irene Sullivan, 19, charged with taking $40 worth of jewelry from Mrs. Edna Edwards, by whom she was employed, paroled. Girl made serious charge against John A. Edwards, employer's husband.

A. L. Griffiths has filed $50 claim against county. Lost overcoat while acting as juror. Claim may be allowed.

Joseph Fremmel, 18, 7443 Langley av., held for grand jury. Alleged to have attacked 6-year-old daughter of William C. Aldridge.

Will of Daniel Ackerman filed. $93,000 goes to widow and children.

Jacob Ludolph, 340 W. 31st st., seriously injured when roof of building, 313 W. 29th st., caved in. Rescued by firemen.

Charles G. Swanson, 19, motor-man Madison st. car, mobbed. Pas-