

Said he wanted to take advantage of parole system.

Fare to Cicero will be 10 cents after April 6. Increase may lead to annexation.

Big Business has adopted "watchful waiting" policy, according to Charles W. Schwab, steel magnate. Hints at panic.

Mrs. H. Heyman, Metropole Hotel, reports loss of gold mesh bag and $1,000 jewelry. Dropped purse on shopping tour.

No trace found of Edith Schubert, 17, missing Brookfield girl.

Policewoman Lulu Parks in New York. Will bring back Marie Stopper, Chicago's stagestruck girl.

Mrs. Young's study course passed by school board. Teachers approve new plan.

359 E. 51st st. raided. Blind pig found. Four men and two women arrested.

John Bovano, 25, 856 Milton av., arrested as suspect in murder of John Lipare, released on ball. Bonds $15,000.

Near riot at West Hammond when "drys" tried to talk. Citizens want $18,000 income from saloons.

H. Larsh, 4042 Lake Park av., slipped on icy pavement in front of Clark street car. Saved by fender.

Mrs. Louise Shuster, 50, 751 N. Clark st., got silver in finger. Blood poison. Dead.

Thomas & Smith, contractors, 118 N. Carpenter st., bankrupt. Liabilities $150,000.

Anna Durchslag wants marriage annulled. Claims relatives of hubby are trying to steal her fortune.

Charles R. Hooker, 312 S. Kenilworth av., dropped dead on N. W. "L" station platform. Heart disease.

BRIGGS HOUSE BANDIT CAUGHT

Eddie O'Brien, 26, was identified today according to the police, as the bandit who held up the Briggs House one week ago and escaped in a taxicab with $150, after shooting Manager William Stammer in the leg. Detectives arrested O'Brien last night on information said to have been furnished by a woman. O'Brien denies the hold-up.

Put vaseline on the cork of the glue bottle and it will never stick.