

NOON EDITION

NOON EDITION

NATALBY'S IS HIT BY MRS. POTTER PALMER
WAITRESSES' STRIKE—FINALLY LETS SOME GIRLS WANT FAIRNESS SATISFACTION OUT

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Daily Newspaper.

N. D. Cochran,
Editor and Publisher.
500 South Peoria St.

Tel. Monroe 353.
Automatic 51-422.
By Mail, 50 Cents a Month.

VOL. 3, NO. 152

Chicago, Friday, March 27, 1914

ONE CENT

SAYS NERO WOULD HAVE HOWLED AT THE NEW MUNICIPAL COURT PLAN

And His Howl Would Be One of Delight, Says Ass't Corporation Counsel Nicholas Michels—Raps the Tar Out of the Proposed Act.

The new Municipal Court plan, which Chief Justice Harry Olson of the Municipal Court is trying to sneak over on the voters this spring, comes in for a burning attack by Assistant Corporation Counsel Nicholas Michels.

"Tiberius, Caligula and Nero would howl with delight at this modern law which practically re-enacts, makes possible and justifies all of the brutal violations of the laws of Rome," thunders Michels. "One involuntarily is carried back to the malicious persecutions of the early Christians at the behest of a set of debauched blackmailers that sought to make a living out of the misery of honest citizens."

Michels warns people that under the plan any policeman, board of park commissioner, or any conservator of peace, will have the power to arrest with or without process all persons who shall break the peace or be found violating any law. Also that any judge can issue a warrant at any hour of the night without due process of law.

The oldest bulwark of citizens against persecution by officers of the law is the "Bill of Rights," which follows: