

ANIMALS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

THE WART
HOG

A beauty doctor is all the wart hog needs to make him quite a respectable-looking animal. As it is, he's about as ugly a swine as ever wallowed in an African swamp. The wart hog is almost as big as a lion, and his shaggy head and neck, with its bristly mane, gives the hideous creature a grotesque resemblance to the "king of the desert."

The wart hog is a bush ranger, but, like other swine, he is frequently found wallowing in mud holes and streams. The warts, which give him his name, grow in pairs on each side of his nose. He is found both in South Africa and in astern Africa.

Honey and glycerine, mixed in equal proportions, is an excellent remedy for cracked lips. It should be applied every night till the cracks are thoroughly healed.

WHAT SHE MEANT

Teacher—After you practice this step awhile you ought to get an engagement on the stage.

The Pupil—Do you think they will like my dancing?

The Teacher—No—I thought maybe you could sing.
