

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Rumored that Supreme Court will declare woman's suffrage law unconstitutional. Decision would affect 1,000 saloons and 6 Chicago aldermen.

Price-cutting war between asphalt companies is benefiting city. Mexican product lowers bid on contracts.

Hoynes to rush James Franche, "Duffy the Goat's," trial. Fears witnesses will leave city if case of divelayer is delayed.

Potter Palmer, Jr., and 14 other directors of defunct Realty Realization Co. sued. Are charged with depleting capital of company.

Mrs. August Nelson, Barrington, hanged self in corncrib. Ill health.

State factory inspector visited Ringling Brothers' circus. Found that the 300 women employed receive better pay and live in better moral environment than those in factories.

John Oarmon, 718 N. Dearborn st., held for impersonating an officer. Was identified by James McGuire as man who drove him to Bridewell and dumped him out after severely beating him up.

Robert Graham, alias R. B. Jones, arrested at Congress Hotel. Wanted in Tucson, Ariz., for passing $200 check.

LeRoe Atkinson, actor, agreed to pay $255 to wife and 3-year-old son. Parents separated before child was born.

Judge F. Tuthill ordered Chief Gleason to permit presentation of movie, "Magda, the Modern Madame X." Funkhouser refused permit.

John Hayes, 4825 Iowa st., hit by switch engine at N. Kenton av. and W. Division st. Dead.

Mrs. Victor E. Lilliborg wants divorce obtained in 1910 reviewed. Claims hubby secretly paid her lawyer to get it.

Rudolph J. Busch's $60,000 estate goes to widow and daughter. If widow remarries daughter gets all.

$45,000 estate of John Erwood goes to widow.

Mrs. M. Brabenstein saw customers going elsewhere. Went to clairvoyant. Told to sprinkle pepper at rival's door. Fined $25.

Judge Landis refused to run Joseph Kveton's saloon, 3834 W. 26th st. Appointed receiver to close business.

$954,403 left by Albert G. Farr. Daughter executrix.

Seventeen freshmen, Northwestern University, ducked in lake. Had kidnaped three sophomores. Refused to tell where prisoners were.

Will of Samuel W. Allerton filed. $4,000,000 estate goes to widow and children.

Conrad & Flynn's furniture store, 5450 S. Ashland st., burned. Loss $4,000.

Walter Hanson elected editor of Northwestern University Magazine.

James F. Foley found unconscious in hallway of Hotel Pullman, 3641 S. State st. Skull fractured. Died from injuries.

$180,000 estate of Gerard Alexander left to mother, Mrs. Louise Alexander, Louisville, Ky.

Five-day-old baby daughter of Bessie Dunndrow, placed beside mother first time yesterday. Mother, overcome with joy, hugged baby hard. Child dead.

Theodore Hepner, 45, 8945 Burley av., held under $2,000 bonds on serious charges preferred by 16-year-old daughter, Florence.

William Berry tried to "beat way" on Northwestern mail train. Thrown under wheels. Dead.

Mrs. Frances Vilianski and son, Leo, 6, injured by sheet iron sign. Sign fell from building, 1817 Milwaukee av.

Telephone boxes in County Bldg. looted. About $20 taken.

Haisted street car struck by C. R. & T. train at 81st st. Louis Lutz, conductor, lost left leg.

Robert Schurger, 49, and Helen R. Moran, 22, eloped. Parents deny girl's marriage, but admit daughter is not