

NEW TUB FROCK

Tub frocks will be worn more than ever this year, and they will almost all be made with the long, rather full tunic.

Cotton duvetine will be very popular for these gowns. The one shown here is of dull-blue duvetine. About the long tunic is a circular frill. The front of the bodice and cowboy collar are of organdie.

BY AND ABOUT WOMEN

Mrs. J. Van Ronkel of Chicago, who has just celebrated her fiftieth wedding anniversary, with her husband, has the following advice to offer women who marry:

"Stay at home. At least, be there when your husband is there.

"Cook all your husband's meals. A bad disposition is always caused by indigestion.

"A slouchy woman never keeps her husband's love.

"Keep surprising your husband and learning new things with which to surprise him."

Two trust funds, one for $25,000 for the promotion of woman suffrage through the Equal Suffrage League, and another of $150,000 for the creation of a corporation to educate negroes in the state of Maryland, are provided for in the will of Mrs. William M. Ellicott, an ardent suffragist.

Katherine B. Davis, commissioner of correction in New York City, has received many threatening letters since her order forbidding the sending of food to prisoners in city prisons by friends outside.

"Olivia cottage," the $25,000 gift of Mrs. Russell Sage to the Vaughan Teachers' Rest, at Tomkins' Cove, N. Y., overlooking the Hudson river, to be used as a winter and summer rest for teachers, has just been dedicated.

In Willesden, England, all the married women go out to work while the husbands stay at home and keep house.

Ontario offer $25,000 for the first discovery of radium in the province.
