

ARREST SYLVIA PANKHURST

London, June 11.—Sylvia Pankhurst was arrested last night when the East End Docker Army, which she organized, began to march on Premier Asquith at Westminster.

Nearly 10,000 persons gathered to see the procession start. Miss Pankhurst was carried by four men, and the parade was headed by the Rev. M. r. Willis. A band played the "Marseillaise."

The parade had not gone more than a mile when the police by a sudden maneuver arrested Miss Pankhurst and whisked her away to jail in a taxicab, followed by a few shrieking women.

REKER ACTS IN DOPE WAR

Assistant Corporation Counsel Geo. L. Reker says he will file 40 or 50 new complaints against Truax, Greene & Co., druggists, on charges of selling dope. Thirteen counts were filed yesterday. The maximum for each is $200. John R. Hall and Thomas Black, employes of the druggists, were arrested, charged with selling dope, on complaint of the State Board of Health.

TO THE SUN

BY JIM MANEE

(Time of "When I Lost You.")

I got the burn on my forehead,
I got the blister, too.
I was a grouch and a sore head
When I first weathered you.
I changed to thin from my heavies,
My appearance was far from discreet;

And, say, on the level, I've sweat like
the devil
With your dern heat.

P. S.—To be sung in turkey trot time.

TODAY'S HEALTHOGRAM

Plants raised without sunlight look sickly, pale and abnormal. The same applies to children. Children cannot grow to a normal maturity without sunlight; and adults cannot maintain a normal standard long without it.

There is still plenty of room, so that people can spread out and each have enough of the sunlight for every room in the house.

WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy today and tomorrow; possibly local showers today; not much change in temperature; light to moderate variable winds.
