

WOMAN PUBLIC DEFENDER ASPIRES TO BE GUARDIAN OF YOUNG BOYS

Mrs. Betty H. Berry.

Los Angeles, Cal.—With the intention of becoming the adviser and friend of immigrant women who do not speak English and who find themselves entangled in petty legal difficulties, Mrs. Betty T. Berry recently took up the duties of a deputy public defender in the office of Public Defender Walton J. Wood here. At her special request she will also be given the duty of attending to children's legal difficulties of all descriptions.
