

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Pittsburgh.—Albert Stofiel tripped while running for car. Bit off end of tongue. Arrested as drunk because he couldn't talk.

New York.—Saloonkeeper cashing Patrolman Armstrong's pay check gave him $1,000 bill mistaking it for ten.

Jersey City.—For 35 years James W. Donely has turned over his paper envelope unopened to wife. Now asks courts to find out how much he has been making.

Palermo.—Sicilian mother had five sons at a birth.

Washington.—42 Democratic senators in caucus voted for resolution offered by Sen. Stone, Missouri, to stay here until Pres. Wilson's three anti-trust bills are disposed of.

Des Moines.—Christian Brobst, 15, son of Roy, prominent jeweler, Knoxville, dead result of premature Fourth of July celebration.

Ottumwa, Ia.—Chas. Springer, Russell, killed. Auto turned turtle.

Chariton, Ia.—Fire destroyed half of business district of Lucas. Loss $20,000.

Canon City, Col.—Miss Grace McHugh, leading lady Colorado Motion Picture Co., and Owen Carter, camera operator, both of Denver, drowned during scene in one of company's plays.

Laurel, Miss.—3 negroes killed and 2 wounded by posse seeking Jone bandit who robbed pay train killing 1 and wounding 2.

New Bedford, Mass.—108 bartenders went on strike. Want $18 a week.

Milwaukee.—Democrats from 20 counties signed call for state convention in Milwaukee July 14.

Washington.—Decisive battle is about to be fought between federals and rebels at Puerta Plata, San Domingo, according to reports.

New York.—Theodore Roosevelt assured by throat specialist that rest of six weeks will put voice in good condition.

Memphis, Tenn.—Five cents authorized for every dead rat delivered to mayor.

St. Louis.—Rat census to be taken of buildings on river front to determine whether action is needed as bubonic plague preventative.

Washington.—Grain rates from Montana and Omaha declared discriminatory in favor of Minneapolis dealers by interstate commerce commission.

Edwardsville, Ill.—Curtis Mackinaw fined $5 and costs for displaying weapon. Had fired shot at County Judge Koetter, who left courthouse by a window to avoid boy and mother. Fued.

Escanaba, Mich.—Hunt on for robbers who shot Soo Line agent and looted station. Sixth robbery in year.

Washington.—House went on record against mileage graft for house members. Five cents a mile and actual expenses instead of 20 cents, old rate.

Pittsburgh.—Strikers of 3 Westinghouse plants may return to work today.

Washington.—Sen. Burton, Ohio, arraigned Senate for wasteful methods of appropriating for rivers and harbors. Said Mississippi river improvements desired will cost additional $17,250,000.

Columbia, Mo.—6 weeks' drought in Missouri broken by two inches of rain.

Milwaukee.—Alfred Pracek, oiling machine at Milwaukee Western Fuel Co., lost part of arm.

Springfield.—Four honor convicts working on state roads at Liberty Camp will have sentences commuted July 3.

Jackson, Mich.—Score of persons injured. 3 believed fatally in collision of two interurban cars on Detroit United Railway lines.

Washington.—Charges published in N. Y. newspaper that John Lind, while confidential agent in Mexico,