

BROTHER KILLED IN DUEL WITH TWO SISTERS

Sterling, Ill., July 10.—Mrs. Lee Hutton and Miss Lillian Meyers, sisters, are held without bail for grand jury pending investigation of killing of their brother, Emanuel Meyers, late yesterday.

According to story told by Meyers as he was dying, partly corroborated by the sisters, the three had been disputing.

One of the sisters drew a revolver from the folds of her dress and opened fire on the brother. She fell fainting and the other sister took the weapon. Meyers fell with four bullets in his body.

TAX PROBE ON

A guard was thrown around the books of the assessors' office as a precaution against tampering by outsiders. Today the books—fifty tons of them—will be wheeled into the county court and the big probe will be on.

It is expected that several millionaires will be called first. Ass't State's Att'y's Bell and Berger will handle the cases today.

LORIMER BANK NEWS

Both federal and state grand juries will take up Lorimer bank matter Monday.

Several former officials of old LaSalle National Bank will be called.

State Auditor Brady and his "Michigan wife" will be witnesses.

Receiver Niblack filed answer to several depositors' suits.

PUBLIC FUNDS FOR PUBLIC

To settle the old question of the ownership of the interest on public funds it is the intention of the Citizens' Ass'n to present each candidate for the office of county treasurer with a pledge that he will turn over all interest to the county and keep open books showing bank transactions.

A candidate signing the pledge will be given the support of the association.

IT'S A HABIT

By Jim Manee.

Every evening

After our work is done
My girl and somebody else's
Go out for fun.

They go strolling,
And every night we know
That we will meet eventually
Down at the nickel show.

P. S.—"Dern it, I've seen that one before."

TODAY'S HEALTHOGRAM

Keep your child away from anyone suffering with a cold. Babies should not be allowed near a sick person. Members of the family should be careful not to associate with the children or babies when they themselves are sick.

Parties for very young children are regular incubators for spreading disease. Any child who is not well or who has been recently exposed to a disease should be kept at home for the general safety.

New First Congregational church scored trustees for proposed removal of Chicago Theological Seminary to University of Chicago campus.

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair and warmer today and Saturday; light to moderate variable winds, becoming southerly.
