

POLICE CHIEF PULLS SOME LARGE CHANGE ORDER

Chief Gleason tossed a large-sized bomb into the police department last night when he sent out an order effecting nine captains and some sergeants and patrolmen.

Those transferred:

Capt. Matt Zimmer goes to East Chicago av. in place of John Rehm, who was sent to Austin.

Capt. Thomas J. Coughlin given charge of Cottage Grove av., which is made district for first time.

James O'Toole appointed captain and sent to Town Hall.

Capt. Thos. F. Costello to Lake st.

Capt. Bernard P. Baer, Brighton Park to Warren av.

Thos. F. Cronin, headquarters to 35th.

John J. Ryan, Warren to W. 13th.

James Madden, Town Hall to Deering.

Capt. W. W. O'Brien will have charge of the new district comprising Kensington and Morgan Park.

The following sergeants were transferred: Charles E. O'Donnell, from Filmore st. to Chicago av. station for patrol duty; James J. McIntosh, from Chicago av. to Filmore st. station for patrol duty.

While Gleason, after a talk with the mayor, was shaking up the police, the mayor also decided to grab the following saloon licenses:

Johnny Turio's 2001 Archer av.; John J. Jordan's, 2008 Wabash av.; McGovern's, Erie and Clark, and Eddie Murphy's, 55 W. Austin av.

Harrison also says he'll revoke Freiberg's and Colosimo's licenses if convictions are obtained against them in the municipal court.

Police are investigating report that Lorraine Woods, wanted as witness by Hoynes, is back in city.

Ass't Corporation Counsel Geo. L. Reker filed suit against Bernard H. Mahon, millionaire owner of building at 10 E. 20th st., charging him with knowingly permitting a woman to run a disorderly flat.

ROSEHILL CO. AND LA SALLE BANK TO BE PROBED

Relations between the Rosehill Cemetery Co. and the defunct La-Salle Street Bank to be probed by the state's attorney's office.

Charles B. Munday was vice president of the bank and treasurer of the Rosehill Co. He is charged with having bought the controlling interest in the cemetery company two years ago for the purpose of manipulating the $800,000 fund set aside for the maintenance of the property.

Downstate bankers interested in Munday's banks made poor witnesses before the state's attorney. This latter fact may be accounted for inasmuch as they were guests of Munday at a house party given at his Drexel boulevard home recently, as was also J. K. Seagrave of the state auditor's office, according to the affidavits of investigators.

MRS. WAKEFIELD GETS LIFE

New Haven, Conn., July 31—Sobbing in her cell in the county jail, Mrs. Bessie Wakefield, 19, waited to be called before Judge Reed today, when she will be sentenced to life imprisonment. The jury which heard the evidence in Mrs. Wakefield's second trial on a charge of complicity in the murder of her husband returned a verdict of second degree murder. This means that her two children, the oldest only 6, will have only the care of their poverty-stricken grandmother and may become public charges.

Mrs. Wakefield was first convicted of first degree murder with James Plow and was sentenced to be hanged for the murder of William O. Wakefield. Plow paid the death penalty last March.
