

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Principal James McGinnis, Holmes school, who quarreled with parents of children, transferred to Froebel school.

Jack Burgess, alleged pickpocket, sent to prison for ten years. Caught with hand in pocket of Stephan Kovak, 9146 Dauphin av.

Wm. C. Niblack suing for payment on notes owned by former La Salle Street bank, defunct. Will take 5 years to collect.

John J. Brittain, builder of new tuberculosis sanitarium, suing for $65,000, amount says lost by commission condemning fixtures.

Mrs. Katherine Moran, married in 1875 and deserted 3 weeks later, suing for divorce.

Fred Wurthman sent to prison for life by Judge Dever. Killed wife after separation.

Over 275 poor boys will be given tickets to Elks' minstrels in Blackstone theater, Sunday afternoon.

Victor Winkler, a baker, 435 N. Wells, suicide. Poison. Despondent.

Harry Morley, 4034 Kanmore av., inspector for board of local improvements, shot in leg by holdup men.

Barney Melnick, acquitted in Judge Dever's court of complicity in $8,000 fur steal.

Rev. James M. Darnell, "much-married minister," to be sent to Milwaukee.

Internal revenue offices crowded by doctors getting certificates enabling them to purchase cocaine and opium under new federal law.

Att'y Gen. Lucey filed suit to close Metropolitan State bank. Over $200,000 capital required. Has $25,000.

Eighty members of Methodist and Presbyterian churches in River Forest to build tabernacle today. To hold revival in March.

Harry Hofeldt wanted here for alleged robbery, said to have been killed by train in Morrison, Ill.

Gwong Quen, 67, 2115 Archer av., suicide. Razor. Reason unknown.

Earl Shafer, 6, South Chicago, kidnapped by father 6 months ago, sent back to mother in New York by police. Father missing.

Cassius Carr arrested in offices in Boyce bldg., 30 N. Dearborn. Charged with practicing dentistry without license.

W. P. Smith, revenue agent, appointed as head of Milwaukee station for state of Wisconsin.

Charles Blum fined $100 and costs for stealing pennies from paper stand of Frank Julian, 5th av. and Randolph.

Marie Macciagi arrested by federal authorities in connection with "black hand" letters asking $3,000 from G. Gahanl.

Jean Pomier, 172 E. Superior, fined $1 and costs for alleged attack on A. E. Alston, 225 E. Superior.

Judge Landis received letter asking investigation of Chicago Light Fixture Co. Monopoly charged.

John G. Miller, Miller, Watt & Co., 227 W. Jackson bldg., bankrupt clothing firm, tried for alleged concealing of assets. Freed.

William McCoy, hotel owner, left estate of $700,000. Property filed for probate.

Estate of Frederick Goss, inventor of press, filed for probate. Left $800,000.

Unidentified woman probably fatally hurt when hit by Milwaukee av. car at Huron st.

Edwin K. Stowell, 1349 Hood st., arrested on bum check charge, discharged. Want of prosecution.

Trial of Jos. Fish, insurance adjuster accused of arson to begin today.

Oscar Fiosi, 20, arrested for stealing feather, fined $1. Sent to Bridewell for day.

Christ Vlohes fined $10 and costs on complaint of D. Belogiannia, 723 S. Halsted. Con game charged.

John Taylor, 1040 W. Madison, negro pugilist, shot and killed by WU-