

WANTS PEACE NEGOTIATIONS IN NAME OF HUMANITY

Berlin, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 30.—The governing board of the German Socialist party in a manifesto passed by the censor today called upon the German government "in the name of humanity and culture" to begin peace negotiations.

"The German socialists expect that their friends in other belligerent countries will take the same steps," the statement declared.

The manifesto made public today amplified the statement recently published in the newspaper Vorwaerts. It placed the blame for the failure of the earlier peace efforts on the French and Belgian Socialists.
