

man became impatient. Suddenly Bennett found his hands taken in Home's strong clasp.

"Come along, my boy," said Home.

"Where?" stammered Bennett. "Where?" echoed Home. "Why, to Minnie, of course. She'd give me fits if I didn't bring you back to supper."

BABY BUNTING'S SUMMER WARDROBE—ISN'T IT COOL AND COMFY

For little men and little women just kicking out of their trailing baby clothes into their first short dresses here's a "baby trousseau" that's complete and very practical—and the best thing about it is that it may be made up at little expense.

The outfit includes the little shirt, which is softest flannel, and a coat, a slip, a petticoat and drawers. Nainsook, which you can buy for 25 cents a yard, and sometimes less, is very good material for the slip, petticoat and drawers, and you'll find at economy to buy the goods in 10-yard quantities, either 36 or 40 inches wide.

Bedford cord is the ideal material for the washable summer coat, and the little hood may be made of washable white silk or nainsook. Smocking, which is as fashionable for babies as grownups just now, will be a pretty finish for "Baby Hunting's" slip.

Soft little sandals of white canvas are cool and comfortable for baby's "tootsies." They cost 50 cents, which is cheap, because they can be easily cleaned with soap, water and a brush.
