

disease has been traced in many cases to the kiss, and for this reason we have waged war on osculation in Dominica. The "pat-pat" is the accepted form of greeting in our country and I advocate that in the interest of humanity the health authorities of the United States launch a campaign to establish the "pat-pat" as the standard method of saluting in this country."

HOW A WOMAN DECIDES THAT SHE NEEDS A VACATION

By Frank H. Williams

I believe I'll have a liyer stew for dinner.

Mrs. Jones certainly got in an awful stew when she saw the Smith's maid wearing the same kind of a hat she's bought.

The "Made in America" goods aren't as good as those made abroad. America is where women aren't getting their rights.

Harry says it's a pleasure for him to see Pugilist Kid Punk shoot in his lefts and rights.

Men have lots of pleasure.

Women should have more pleasure.

I should have more pleasure!

I will have more pleasure, my nerves demand it.

My nerves are very bad.

I'll tell Harry tonight about my nerves and leave next week for a month at the seashore!

HIGH LIGHTS ON FALL FASHIONS

By Betty Brown

The new tailored suits will be short coated, almost as short as the Eton jackets of summer time.

Short coats mean short skirts—from five to seven inches is the length the designers predict for fall and winter street suits.

Summer's riot of color will subside with the fall. The new colors are in such subdued shades as dark green, purple, gray, and, of course, navy blue.

The long separate coat which gained some popularity last winter will be in the forefront of fall and winter styles.

Furs won't be worn for months to come, but cunning little scarfs of knitted silk or wool are already adorning the necks, or rather the shoulders, of well-dressed girls.

Hats for the early season are large and made on sailor models.
