

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:48; sunset, 7:04.

Mrs. Blanche T. Marshall sued by Att'y L. H. Whipp for $500. Question of fee.

Bids for apparatus for 30 playgrounds opened by Ald. Block.

Jas. Porter, 70, arrested. Charged with substituting paste stone for real diamond in Sommer & Sons' jewelry store, 507 S. Wabash av.

Receivers asked for Chas. S. Smith Lumber Co.

Thos. Flanagan, 222 W. 37th, city alley inspector, fell dead. Heart disease.

Federal employment bureau had 6,852 applications for jobs in July. Filled 3,958 positions.

J. J. Lynch and A. Cochran go into court to force Mayor Thompson to grant license for their saloon, 3000 Wabash av.

Electric auto of A. J. Wellman, 405 E. 60th, caught fire in loop. $200.

Richard A. Aylwood fined $25 for throwing shoe through window of 47th st. car.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Sangstock, 2247 W. 20th, dead. Fractured skull by falling in 20th st. car.

Morris Heisenberg, 1210 S. Union av., stabbed in back. Police looking for Louis Bubenstein.

Wm. Jacobs, Waukegan, who ate "mushrooms" with wife, follows her in death. Were toadstools.

Frank Smalley, 1453 Larrabee, faints at wheel of moving auto. Ran on pavement. Tore down fence. Nearly killed pedestrians. Driver unhurt.

Hearing of woman's charge against Raymond Hogg, member real estate firm, Hogg, Doyle & Co., continued in E. Chicago av. police court.

John Bauer, 633 Lincoln pkwy., charged with attempting to steal auto of John Baker, 30 E. Cedar.

Body of Daniel Carey, machinist, accidentally drowned by fall from a dredge, caught in Sag Bridge net in canal.

Judge Robinson said he was about to fine Chas. Tobin, proprietor of hotel, 69 W. Ohio, and 8 inmates, when Asst. City Prosecutor Borgmeyer asked for nonsuit. Immediately arrested on state charge.

Pierce Underwood, Oak Park, indicted for misuse of mails, discharged.

R. E. Miller, 669 W. 63d, killed by Rock Island train at 104th st. grade crossing.

Police looking for young man who passed bogus checks signed Elizabeth Hanson.

Edgewater property owners protest tax boost.

Emil Trumbull, 17, 2743 W. 18th, messenger boy, found dead with head crushed, foot of elevator shaft, 1415 Michigan av.

John Borden made grandson, John, present of $155,000 lot, 1212 S. Michigan.

Paul Llewellyn, 5200 Woodlawn av., heard noise in neighbor's flat. Neighbor on vacation. Investigated. Met robber with satchel of loot in one hand and other in hip pocket. Llewellyn let him go.

Police Serg't Felix Golden's young wife saw men stealing grain. Told her husband. He gave chase. In fight his skull fractured.

Carl Lorenson, Milwaukee, twice tried to leap from steamer Christopher Columbus.

C. L. Bastian's home, 805 Junior terrace, stripped of $3,000 in valuables while he was on vacation.

Evanston vigilance committee of 40 hold secret meeting to plan war on blind pigs.

Internal row in United Irish Societies. Question of authority over picnic.

Sheriff Traeger will permit no more boxing exhibitions in Forest park.

Mrs. Agnes Frisinger, formerly of Hull House, hired as police matron of Hoopston, Ill. Made whole day force of police department, including chief,