

hand in movie, but said she objected to further advance. Both reprimanded.

Ignatz Schulz, 150 W. Erie, had seven stitches taken before he finished supper. Had fight with Chris Lambrine, restaurateur, 692 Milwaukee.

Mrs. William Cutler, wife of refrigerator man, called him "easy mark" and sued for divorce. Says he spends money on other women.

John Hittell, recently suspended in probe of paving ring graft, resigned post of chief street engineer local improvement board. Says he didn't get fair trial.

Seven bachelors in Corp. Counsel Ettelson's office, including C. C. himself. And leap year is coming. Republican suffragettes favored.

Jane Addams out of hospital.

Purse snatchers grabbed $10 from two women last night.

Laurence Adams, new mgr. of Brevoort hotel, fathering movement to make felony passing "not sufficient funds" checks.

Mrs. P. Januszewski, widow, 4555 S. Karlov av., bound, gagged, mistreated and murdered. No arrests.

Paula Catanio, barber, shot in home at 2219 W. Chicago. Police have arrested four. Believed to have been shot by affinity.

Hotel Ass'n of Chicago went on record approving any action by city authorities to improve moral conditions in hotels.

Grand jury probe into strike slugging finished. Most witnesses were sluggers who admitted they were paid, and their victims.

PLAN MASQUERADE BALL

Jewish labor organizations will get together Saturday evening in the First Regiment armory, Michigan av. and 16th st., for a grand masquerade ball and benefit.

The "Jewish Labor World" will get the proceeds.

Ald. Wm. E. Rodriguez and his wife will lead the grand march.

MEN ACCUSED OF BOMB PLOT AT WELLAND CANAL

R. E. LEYENDECKER
PAUL KOENIG

Leyendecker and Paul Koenig, said to be the head of the German secret service in this country, are charged, it is alleged, with having started in the United States a military enterprise against the Dominion of Canada for the destruction of the Welland canal, the waterway that connects