

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7:18; sunset, 4:28.

Coroner's jury freed Mrs. Anna Latham, 1409 W. 14th pl. Decided husband committed suicide. Was found dead with bullet in head.

Anna Sandusky, who tried to jump in lake with babe in arms, glad she failed. Has many offers of shelter.

Union Station Co. and city sued for $20,000 by property owners at Clinton and Monroe, where street was raised for new depot.

Police seeking Mrs. Mary Hyduk. Left baby with Henry Yurkat, 732 N. Racine av. Disappeared.

Matthew Krug, 730 N. Avers av., found unconscious on sidewalk at Hamlin and Chicago avs. Dead.

James Jackson, in Gary cell, tried to commit suicide. Prevented by another prisoner.

George Dzieman, 830 S. Oak Park av., Oak Park, killed by conveyer bucket in grain elevator at 24th and Halsted.

Michael Dopuda, employe By-Products Coke Co., 112th and Torrence av., dead. Had blood poison after arm was crushed off by freight train.

Sam Lee, owner laundry, 4121 Indiana av., bound and gagged by three robbers who broke into place. They got $20.

Dexter Stocking, 6314 Lowe av., chauffeur, died of heart disease in restaurant at 6322 Cottage Grove av.

Squad of deputy sheriffs visited saloon of Chas. Moertel, Bellwood, Ill. Gambling found.

Mrs. Jeanette Bailey, maid in home of Mrs. W. E. Wafal, 5710 Blackstone av., fined $25 for taking things.

Max Weiner, tailor, New Southern Hotel bldg., arrested. Heyman Leidental says he attacked him when he tried to collect bill.

Vito Ciso, 1426 S. Wabash av., dead. Casting fell on him at New York Central freight house.

Albert Ohlsen, who broke into four garages while out on parole, sent to Bridewell for six months.

Milton Kirk, soapmaker, left $750,000 to widow and three children.

Vincent Baier lost $20,000 here to wiretapper swindlers, according to Cincinnati police. Ask search for "con" men.

Frank Wilson sentenced to 40 days in Waukegan jail by Judge Landis in federal court. Used dope.

R. S. Johnson, negro lather, held to grand jury for fatal shooting of "Alex Alex," business agent lathers' union.

Council committee on harbors recommended harbor board to care for new municipal pier.

Eva Lindig suing Peter Sausser for $10,000. Alleged slander basis of action.

Kurt Ulrich, 3446 N. Crawford av., told police he lost $230 to pepper bandit. Later confessed falsehood.

Ellen Murphy, dressmaker, 1102 W. Garfield blvd., hit by auto of Carl Sulzer, baker, 2851 N. Halsted. Dead.

Phillip Schneider, salesman, 1930 Howe, struck by auto Christmas eve. Dead.

Nicholas Szuk, saloonkeeper, 1549 Hudson av., told police sneak thief took $138 from behind bar.

John F. Seiling, Franklin Park, arrested on embezzlement charge preferred by Ed Dewes, sec'y Standard Brewing Co.

No indictments expected from slugger activities in recent garment strike. Grand jury will make recommendations.

Coroner's jury asked freedom for Charles Kurtz, held for fatal stabbing of Edward Lennon in quarrel. Justified.

Judge Landis held Hyman Kaufman, 6807 S. Halsted, to grand jury. Refused to appear and testify about chain of stores he owns.

Publicity for public libraries urged by W. H. Kerr, before American Library ass'n in Hotel La Salle.

Joseph Zielenski, 4357 S. Honore, and John Slego, 4308 S. Ashland av.,