

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 6:12; sunset, 5:49.

Only 39 more days of Lent.

West Park police to have a beauty squad.

Mrs. Leonard Payne, 2126 Congress, said she paid $1,800 to gypsies, 1237 Miller, to have them chase evil spirits. Had gypsies arrested.

Prof. P. O. Ray, Northwestern univ., proposes law to let traveling salesmen and others vote by mail.

John Foley, 813 Cass, arrested on perjury charge. Swore Mary Walsh, 206 W. Chicago av., was 18 when he applied for license. Mother says she is 16.

Meyer Brand, owner shoe store, 1819 Division, held to grand jury, manslaughter charge; result of death of Mrs. Ida Epstein, 1823 Division.

Industrial schools appealed to the county board for money to care for children sent them by juvenile court.

License of saloon of Thomas Stanton, 1557 W. 12th, revoked by mayor. Kept open Sunday.

Work on new B. & O. depot stopped. Say freight building will block opening of 5th av.

Joseph Ott suicided from 5th floor at 310 S. Peoria, where he worked. No motive known.

Motion made yesterday to annul the indictment against Will Orpet for alleged murder of Marian Lambert.

Saloon of Jacob Goldberg, 4157 N. Central Park av., open. Was closed for Sunday beer selling.

Fire in Argyle theater, 4930 Broadway, under investigation by police. Damage small.

Nels Nelson, father of "Bat" Nelson, pugilist, missing from home. Carried $500.

Black hand bomb partly destroyed home of Joseph Pazzie, 6940 Vincennes av.

Motorcycle Policemen J. J. Onthank and C. E. Lund accused of "shaking down" speeding motorists.

Police asked to seek Walter Willis of Naperville. Missing with $3,000.

Charge made in cross bill filed by heirs that Sidney C. E. Eastman, referee in bankruptcy, mismanaged estate of Jas. H. Doyle.

Ralph Singer, 18, suing Rosenberg's department store, Evanston, for $50,000 for alleged false arrest when he worked there as clerk. Said he had not had time to deposit in bank $18 he was accused of stealing.

Coroner investigating death of Edward Wilson, waiter, found dead in room at 430 S. Sangamon.

Martin McHale, 165 E. Ohio, got custody of 4-year-old daughter in Judge McDonald's court.

Harold Russell, 901 Edgecomb pl., arrested. Beat Daniel Dever, 708 Buena av., in street fight, charge.

Sam Hasterlik, liquor dealer, 407 Aberdeen st., hurt when auto collided with another. May not live.

Mrs. Anna Waterman, 2907 Eastwood av., seriously ill. Car hit ambulance taking her to hospital to become mother.

Mattie Booker, missionary Church of God, 5404 S. Dearborn, arrested in Kankakee on charge of stealing jewelry.

Coroner's jury decided that Richard Dreltung, watchman, 1736 Chester st., died from pneumonia. Found dead in basement.

Washington Park bank robbers re-indicted as they go to Joliet to start service today.

Rob't E. O'Callaghan, saloonkeeper, Madison and Cicero, closed cabaret during Lent.

Police asked to watch for Clarence McNamee of La Grange. Wife says he took child and left her.

Rowan Quill, 8, 601 Lyman av., Oak Park, killed by auto of Joseph Royer, 803 S. Austin av.

Midnight burglar got $2,000 in jewelry from home of Mrs. Joseph Weinfeld, 704 E. 50th.

Dr. Joseph Slattery, anti-Catholic lecturer, refused use of Douglas Park auditorium last night. Feared riot.