

Most Wonderful Girl becomes the moderately wonderful wife of the young man who sent the roses—or some other young man—the etiquette of flowers must again be observed.

For the wife sweet peas are the thing, according to the most fashionable florists. And if there should be a very little girl, a dainty cluster of daisies are her Easter portion along with the rabbit and the Easter eggs.

And the lily—well, the lily is now only appropriate as a gift for the whole family.

NEW SPORTS COATS FOR THE LITTLE WOMEN

By Betty Brown

The tiny girl must have her sports coat as well as the girl who has grown up. And could anything be more sportsmanlike than this straight-lined little coat designed by Mme. Becker of the Fashion Art League of America for small girls who play either tennis or tag.

Because play coats often need a tubbing Mme. Becker used a washable cotton fabric in this model. It is in "Pat" green, trimmed with adjustable white leather cuffs and collars. The hat is green silk, closely stitched.
