

!IEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:38; sunset, 7:14.

Miss Sadie Whitehead, 1520 Wells, domestic, suicide; gas.

Jos. Baum, 852 W. Randolph, robbed of $15 and watch.

Northwestern Trust & Savings bank gave 10th anniversary dinner and dance. J. F. Smulski, pres., given anniversary present.

Nude body of man found in drainage canal, Willow Springs.

Cracksmen blew two safes at Fox Lake, then escaped in Mayor Harry Maypole's horse and buggy.

Final battle between Mrs. Anna Matters and Margaret Ryan for possession of "Baby Irene," whom each claims is her child, begun in Judge Landis' court.

Dr. A. L. Blunt, 9 W. Harrison, arrested tenth time on charge of selling narcotics.

Jerome Eratchzal, machinist, committed suicide, razor, home of sister, Mrs. Anna Sindel, 2431 S. Lawndale.

Frank Zorich, 13611 Brainard av., stabbed three times after quarrel with Geo. Ratzovich, 13500 Baltimore av. St. Marcus hospital.

Frank Sittle, engineer, Gary, married five weeks ago, fatally burned by lead, U. S. Steel Co.'s plant, Gary.

Wm. Denslinger fined $200 when mother of Ruby Downey, 17, 9002 Cottage Grove av., laid charge that he was married before he eloped with her daughter.

Fred Rohde, pres. Cook County Liquor Dealers' Protective ass'n, who recently testified 95 per cent of saloons violated Sunday closing order, called before civil service commission.

Three dead, result of falls: David Van Vranken, 200 S. Peoria; John Oranza, 3723 Emerald av.; Mrs. Catherine Bates, Riverside.

Man who suffered paralytic stroke, Muskegon, Mich., believed to be Wm. Noble, Chicago.

Policeman Wm. Einstad exonerated by coroner's jury for killing John McGuire, who had gun in hand,

Geo. E. Ford, commission merchant, 27 W. South Water, given preliminary hearing on charge of ordering fruit from growers, then refusing to pay. Federal case.

Anna Callebert, who attempted suicide shortly before arrest, held to grand jury, charge of robbing home Mrs. Augusta Hermann, 3905 N. Francisco av.

Robber got $3,500 in jewels and $50 cash, home Mrs. Van Schaik Rollo, 4733 Ingelside av. Seventh robbery in this block in nine months.

Miss Pearl Givan, Constantine, Ky., came here Tuesday to meet hubby-to-be, secured through matrimonial paper. He thought they were to meet Wednesday. Police located him. Wedded.

Police get stolen auto after four-mile chase; arrest Fred Ewart, 15, and Warren Nehrs, 17.

Nicholas Calaldo, Italian musician, probably fatally wounded by gun shot after leaving home of fiancée, Miss Emily Carmello, 7016 S. Hermitage av. Believed work of rival.

Det. Serg't G. A. Teeling, 7644 Lowe, sneaked down stairs with gun and caution. Thought burglars were on front porch. Were lovers.

Auto of H. R. Gibbons, 5492 Sheridan rd., destroyed by fire when it left road near Racine.

Patrick McGovern, who quit police force several years ago when he inherited money, broke. Sent to the workhouse, 15 days, because couldn't pay $5 fine.

Joy riders "borrowed" costly new car of E. J. Warner of Sprague, Warner & Co., and practically wrecked it and car of Dr. A. M. Unger, Reliance bldg.

Harry Johnston, 4643 Prairie av., who enlisted in Canadian battalion, wounded in battle of Somme.

Unidentified man leaped from Kinzie st. bridge. Drowned.

So far mayor's postcard vote of neighbors of Edelweiss gardens is