

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:48; sunset, 7:04.

Eight public school swimming pools will be opened to public as soon as arrangements are made for communities sharing expense.

R. E. Kift and Mrs. Nellie Kift, 5001 Indiana av., charged with confidence game by Mrs. May Curtis, 5127 Indiana av., who says they have not paid for two taxis they bought.

Wm. O'Dett, 3737 Langley av., Wells-Fargo express driver, arrested, charged with theft of $515 package.

G. W. Miller, 5425 Cottage Grove av., sued by wife for separate maintenance.

Miss Marie Page, 1244 Arthur av., 20, fined $10 for driving car through Lincoln park 33 miles an hour.

Auto of G. A. Ames, Southern hotel, caught fire on muny pier. Extinguished. First fire on new pier.

Mrs. Chas. O. Frisky's apartment, 1211 Morse av., robbed of $500 in jewels and cash.

New case of infantile paralysis reported. Three deaths from disease in Chicago in July.

Evanston woman protests that fly traps are cruelty to animals. Says trapped flies should be watered and fed until executed.

Ambrose Cramer, Jr., and Marvin H. Frost, sons of wealthy Lake Forest parents, fined $20 and costs each. Raced autos 45 miles an hour through Lake Forest.

Max Kazleowski, 3304 S. Morgan, paid $300 for machine to make $2 bills. Walter Bleshko arrested.

Mrs. John Weiss, 4432 Prairie av., suicide. Gas.

Geo. McGowan, 2008 Fremont, suicide. Stabbed self with hatpins. Cut wrist with razor.

A "children's hour" inaugurated at muny pier, 3 p. m. today.

Michael L. Igoe, ass't district att'y, and Gen. Jas. E. Stuart, divisional chief of postoffice inspectors, tried to stage fist fight at hearing before Com'r Foote. Separated.

F. L. Orr, 717 Montrose av., arrested on charge of embezzling $10,000 from Tulsa, Okla., oil company.

Geo. Wilkens, charged with wife abandonment and embezzlement of $1,000 from Englewood Country club, going back to New York to ask wife to divorce him so he can wed "other woman."

Three field kitchens, value $700 each, donated to soldiers on border by Chicagoans.

Police of dozen cities looking for Virginia Ruble, 17, who disappeared Monday from North Chicago after accepting invitation to ride in auto with strange men.

Thos. Bowes, 7605 W. Adams, reported to police that wife and daughter of 3 left him. Suspects telegraph operator.

Jas. Tuohy and Geo. Williams, safe-blower and holdup man, caught in attempt to escape county jail. Sawed through cell door locks.

David Korshak, who turned state's evidence in arson trust case, arrested for pandering.

Minnie Ellsworth, 7811 Union av., wrote tax board her assessment should be $20,400, not $400, as made.

D. J. Foley, Engine Co. No. 105, discharged from force for neglect to notify comrades of fire alarm to which company should have responded.

Fourth son of John Barrett sent to Joliet yesterday. Father just released from there.

Mayor Thompson flatly says he will not be candidate for re-election.

Members of subway commission deny Journal's story that it has already been decided to turn down subway proposition.

B. Kaplan, 2516 W. Division, unconscious when rescued from lake at Clarendon beach. Revived. Went back swimming again.

Ed Thorpy, 1227 W. Adams, arrested, asked John Adams, 2137 W. 18th, to look after his wife, 21. Suspected