

at 48th av., near Oak Forest infirmary.

Celia Kallison, 2720 S. State, sued for divorce from Sam Kallison. Cruelty and drunkenness charged.

Judge Landis discharged W. O. Johnson as receiver for old Chicago & Milwaukee Electric road, now known as Chicago & North Shore road.

Municipal pier not to be used during winter.

Herman A. Taskett sued to annul marriage to Katherine Porter Taskett. Said they were married within year after her divorce from J. H. Koontz.

Lodavine Miller and brother, Att'y J. Marion Miller, sentenced to prison for one to ten years on charge of swindling "Sentimental Tommy" Foulkes.

Mrs. Anna Savage wants divorce from Fordyce Savage, Cassopolis, Mich. Desertion charged.

Peter Fleming, 1622 Orchard, hurt in collision between street car and ice wagon. May die.

Typewriter and law books stolen from courtroom of Justice of Peace Lewis, Oak Park.

Coroner probing death of Frank Annaka, 3432 S. Halsted. Arsenic found in body.

P. H. Nicholls, Racine, Wis., found on top of Monon freight car with fractured skull. Dying.

John R. Thompson, Jr., son of restaurant man, to wed Lois Bell, 4347 Berkeley av.

John A. King, 431 S. Ashland Blvd., banker and politician, dead.

Lake st. bridge will be open to traffic in two weeks, Belmont av. bridge in five weeks and Monroe st. in about two years.

Mrs. Otto Gess, 60, Dalton, Ill., killed and four others hurt when auto went into ditch near Dyer, Ind.

Mrs. H. Chandler Egan secretly divorced from former golf champion July 17. Desertion charged.

State's Att'y Hoyne says he is satisfied with bond of $10,000 in case of Thomas H. Bibb, accused of embezzling by Victor Chemical Co.

Thos. Gephard, 1223 Taylor, arrested for stealing, agreed to join army if freed. He was.

Mrs. Elizabeth Nottelman and 10-year old daughter, Oak Park, found dead. Gas.

Scott Towar, 309 E. 56th, wants divorce. Says wife likes another.

Late Benj. C. Sammons, vice pres. Corn Exchange bank, left $150,000 estate.

Wm. Johnson of Cole and Johnson, negro vaudeville team, dead from fall from porch at 3512 S. State.

MEXICAN HERO IS REPORTED DYING

GEN. ALVARO OBREGON

Gen. Obregon, Mexican minister of war, considered Mexico's greatest military leader, is reported critically ill with Bright's disease.

Obregon, a farmer, joined in Mexican revolutions, supporting Madero against Huerta, then joined Carranza against Villa. He lost his right arm in battle in April, 1915.