

ONE CENT—LAST EDITION—ONE CENT

PENNY PHONE SERVICE IS POSSIBLE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 303 Chicago, Thursday, September 21, 1916

398

SOCIETY QUEENS KICK ON TANGO STORIES OF HEARST AND TRIB

Maje McCormick and Roy D. Keehn "Goats" in Howl
From Smart Set—Don't Like Blackmail Scandal
Stories—Mrs. Regina A. Klipper Angry at Fizzle of Gang Yarn.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Disclosure of a plot to kidnap or murder a witness named Frank Crocker, who has made a full confession regarding the workings of the nation-wide blackmailers' syndicate was made today by a member of the dep't of justice investigation bureau following two-day session attended by division heads from New York, Chicago and Philadelphia. Crocker was the man who fascinated Mrs. Regina Klipper.

The Chicago newspaper field is humming with gossip of the kicks being made to the Tribune and the Hearst papers against their persistence in printing yellow stories of the shaking down of society folks with a love for secret adventures with members of the opposite sex.

Maje McCormick of the Trib and Roy D. Keehn are said to have been appealed to stop the stories. They say it puts Chicago's "four hundred"