Washington.—Will be no war until American lives are actually lost, is belief semi-officially expressed.

Washington. — Consul Frost of Queenstown reported officially to state department that George Washington, negro, killed in torpedoing of Turino yesterday, was born in Alberta, Can., and was apparently a British subject.

London. — Two killed when German submarine shelled and sank the Norwegian steamer Ida. Norwegian steamer Hanskinck also reported sunk.

Stockholm. — Sweden in note to Washington today disagreed with Pres. Wilson's plan for neutrals to join against Germany. Says action would be violation of Swedish prin-
