

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

Boston.—Mayor Curley says Chas. M. Schwab told him that emissary of German government offered him $100,000,000 bribe if Bethlehem Steel Co. would cease making munitions for the allies.

Calveston.—British ship master says Germans use floating mines with periscopes in North sea and dozen British merchantmen have been sunk by mistaking them for submarines and ramming them.