Guessing as to English Purposes.

Chicago, March 22.—Lambert Tree re-turned to Chicago last evening after a are months' absence in Europe. Most of that time he spent in England, where his increase a spent in England, where is interest in foreign affairs, gained during his residence as American minister at Brussels and at St. Petersburg under Cleveland, caused him to devote much attention to the varied phases of the Roar Mark.

'I am inclined to believe," said, Mr.

Iron and Metal Trades.

New York, March 22 .- Discussing the condition of the iron and metal trades The Iron Age says:

No important developments have occurred during the week suggestive of the future course of the fron trade. The situation in bessemer pig continues strong, with rather heavy transactions at Pittsburg and in the east. Large consumers are in need of more material of this character. The demand for foundry pig iron on the other hand is not what it should be at this time, and Bondholders Object.

New York, March 22.—Holders of bonds to the amount of $141,000 in the Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling company any begun proceedings in the surpress. on some grades concessions must be tained.

The outlook is becoming more favorable for export business in pig iron. Foreign buyers are now in this city negotiating for large lots. In one case 18,000 tons are wanted, and in another 10,000 tons. The foreign demand covers bessemer, basic and foundry grades. Prices in England have been advancing sharply, and a very small difference in price now obtains between the views of foreign buyers and American producers. The English market has apparently been kept down by fear of American competition. It was thought on the other side that our prices here were not strongly held, and that American makers were likely to put their rates as low as necessary to capture foreign business. If satisfactory arrangements can now be made for freight room, it is likely that considerable business for export will soon be put through. With such a prospect for enlarg ment of trade abroad, a moderate reduction iff pig iron prices here would not be a serious matter for all business inter-ests concerned. The shortage of iron in Europe offers an opportunity for the disposal of a surplus there.

Jones Wants Colonies.

New York, March 23 .- "I do not believe in free trade with Puerto Rico," remarked United States Senator Jones of Nevada, last night. "I am opposed to making Hawati a Territory. We should have Cuba, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, and the Philippine archipelago colonies of this country with a colonial form of government Just so soon as we establish free trade relations with the islands named just so soon do we bring hundreds of thousands of cheap laborers into competition with the free labor of this country. I favor the highest kind of tariff for Puerto Rico.

A Woman Swindler.

New York, March 21.-Captain Mc-Clusky of the detective bureau said to-day that Miss Harriet T. Clogg, other-wise Mrs. W. A. Busnau, formerly of Baltimore, who was arrested last night after returning from Europe, had con-fessed that she had been engaged in swindling by means of checks. She was locked up last night with her two months'-old baby, which she took with her to police headquarters today. By her own account she had secured about $1,700 in Baltimore and New York. The woman says that Dr. Busnau came to Baltimore about four years ago with a hockey team from Canada, and she married him. They took a trip to London. She afterwards found out that Busnau had a iwfe in Canada from whom he had not been divorced.

SOLDIERS WERE FRICHTENED.

British Exaggerated the Force and Defenses at Magersfontein.

ACTUAL INSPECTION MADE.

Barbed Wire Entanglement Was Only a Fence, and So On With Other Defenses, Shown by English Report.

[Early Dispatches.] London, March 14.-Correspondence of the Associated Press.-That many mistaken estimates were made of Boer strength and guile, while Methuen's force remained passive in front of it, is clear from the following account of a personal inspection of Magersfontein, written by the Daily Telegraph's correspondent after the Boers had evacuated the slaughter place of the high-

"We looked in vain for the 'eight-foot wire entanglements' of which we had read so much from the pens of hysterical and probably rather frightened, young soldiers, after the Magersfontein young soldiers, after the Magersfontein mishap. Instead of an entanglement there was only a simple wire boundary fence—not continuous but placed at intervals along the line of the trenches, and hung with strips of beef drying into biltong. This comestile was was probably a more formidable obstacle than the poor little fence on which it hung. Then we looked for the deep trenches—underground dwellings deep enough to engulf man and horse—of which we had also heard. Disappointment again. A simple trench, or ment again. A simple trench, or rather a double row of simple trenches deep to midthigh, very narrow, and well protected by head cover of sand bags and a slight breastwork. The trench was as simple as the profile, and confined its complications to a slight waviness of plan and an occasional traverse to minimize the effect of shell fire. The most noticeable fact with regard to the trenches was that the back of the front trench was always left quite clear, so as not to interfere with the fire of the second line.

"All along the trenches lay skins, coats, cooking utensils, food and cart-ridges, giving us the first indication we had had that the retreat had been anything but an orderly one. From the trenches it was a step to the gun emplacements. Here, our good friends, the gunners, had told us, we should find traveling and disappearing carriages and every other artifice known to the royal artillery mind. Again were we greeted with the very simplest plans to minimize the effect of the shell fire, a high embrasure covering the gun and sharp slope of the ground behind it, and a deep recess, cut in the solid rock, provided all protection necessary to enable Albrecht's Germans to live through able Albrecht's Germans to live through nearly twelve weeks of lyddite and common shell. One gun had, it is true, been demolished, as testified by an ex-plosion three weeks ago and corroborments, but the others, protected by their simple sand bags and the troublesome perspective of the ironstone kopjes, had maintained a fairly regular and accurate fire for two months of our winter at Modder river."

BRITAIN WILL NOT OBJECT.

Amendment to Hay - Pauncefote Treaty Not Unsatisfactory.

New York, March 22.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: There is good reason, now for believ-ing that Great Britain will accept the Davis amendment to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, under which the United States will have the right to place the same safeguards around the Nicaragua canal as the British government enjoys in respect to the Suez canal.

It was strongly intimated to your correspondent by a diplomat, usually well informed, that Great Britain, with

DEMOCRAT CONVERTED.

Frank Jones of New Hampshire Joins the Republicans.

New York, March 22.-A special to the Tribune from Washington says: Frank Jones, of New Hampshire, un-disputed leader of the Granite State Democracy for a quarter of a century, and a bosom friend of ex-President Cleveland during the latter's twelve years of political activity, has renounced all connection with the Democratic party, and will vote and work for Mc-Kinley this year.
"More than that, I expect to see Mc-Kinley elected," he said. "I do not think there is any doubt of this." For sixteen years, up to 1896, Mr. Jones was the chairman of the delegation from New Hampshire to the Democratic national convention. He was a delegate to the convention which nominated Bryan, but when he found that free silver was a certainty in the platform he broke away from the party before the convention ended. He voted for McKinley in 1896, but did not announce any change in party affiliations until this year, hoping the Democrats would give up silver. Recently he de-clared himself a Republican, and he has just been elected a delegate to the Philadelphia convention by the New Hamp-

Today's issue of the consul reports from the bureau of foreign commerce presents in a striking manner the crisis in Austria-Hungary, where the natural stringency owing to the curtailment of the English supply is aggravated by the existence of a prolonged strike among the coal miners.

Washington, March 21.-The ways and means committee gave a hearing today to a delegation of insurance officials and agents who desire a change in the revenue tax law, by which, in lieu of adhesive stamps in individual transactions, the business will be taxed in bulk. The National Association of Insurance agents was also represented through its officials.

It was urged that the proposed change involved no loss in revenue to the government but altered the manner of collection so as to avoid the inconof collection so as to avoid the inconvenience and business disorder caused by stamping each transaction.

Chairman Payne, of the committee, suggested the advisability of a rebate on adhesive stamps when policies were issued and not finally taken. The members of the delegation argued, however, that the tax in bulk would be preferable and would obviate all rebates. The committee did not take final action on the bill, work to be given will be those of living composers.

OLSEN CHAMPION WRESTLER. He Defeats Ernest Roeber the Heavyweight of America.

New York, March 21.-Beck Olsen of Copenhagen met Ernest Roeber, the heavyweight champion wrestler of America, at the Madison Square Garden tonight in a Graeco-Roman match for the world's championship, and Ol-sen was declared the victor by Referee

This match differed from recent contests of this order, inasmuch as it was to all intents and purposes, on the level. Roeber gained the first fall in twenty minutes and twenty-five seconds, by a half-Nelson hold. The Swede secured the next fall, which proved to be the last, by a front body hold. Roeber was unable to come to the center at the call of time after a ten-minute intermission, and Oisen, therefore, was given the match.

Olsen loked big enough to eat Roe ber, but was very nervous. Fitzsim-mons was one of Roeber's seconds. After the match Roeber lay on his back and had to be carried in a limp condition to his corner, where two doc-trs were summoned to attend the Gerwho seemed to be injured se
