Must Live in Towns Garrisoned by American Soldiers.

TO BE TREATED AS REBELS.

II They Continue to Reside in The Country—Some Insurgents Killed and Supplies Destroyed.

Romblon, Island of Romblon, March 17.—(By mail from Boac, Island of Marinduque, March 18.—The question of attaching this island of Marinduque to the Prince of Tayabas, discussed by the American Philippine commission since their arrival here, has been decided in the negative. The sentiment of the people was wholly in favor of forming a separate province. A population of 50,000 was represented during the discussions, and the commission has met intelligent delegations from all the

There are 300 insurgents still in the mountains of Marinduque, but otherwise the inhabitants are anxious for the pacification of the island and to accept American sovereignty.

Judge Taft has announced Capt. Bandholtz to be chairman of the various committees of natives formed to organize municipal law in the towns of Marinduque. Judge Taft has promised that the commission will return and organize the province of Marinduque.

Major Smith, commanding the American garrisons on this island, has issued an order requiring all natives to live in the five municipal towns where American troops are stationed. Those natives who continue to live in the country will be considered insurgents. A few insurgents have recently been killed or wounded near these towns and their supplies have been destroyed.

THE ALGODONES TRACT.

It Will be Thrown Open to Settlers
This Day.

Phoenix, Ariz., March 18.—The Algodones tract, containing nearly 50,000 acres of land below Yuma, will be opened to settlers today. Much of the land is very valuable and most of it has been filed upon.

BUDAPEST TROUBLES.

Professors and Students Clash Over Removal of the Cross.

Buda Pest, March 18.—Serious disturbances have occurred here between the university officials and the students in consequence of orders issued by the ministers of instruction for the removal of all crosses from the lecture rooms of the university. In spite of this prohibition when the rooms were opened this morning the professors discovered that the students had gained entrance and nailed crosses on the walls. The officials commenced to remove the religious emblems, but were hustled and insulted by the students. Some of the latter, however, supported the officials and violent scenes ensued and the pictures were suspended. The matter will be discussed in parliament.

Oporto Prisoners Removed.

London, March 18.—A dispatch received here from Lisbon says the prisoners, numbering about 200, captured recently in the conflicts with the authorities at Oporto and elsewhere were removed this morning on board two war vessels in order to prevent attempts to rescue them.

TRIAL OF BULGARIANS.

Two Prisoners Say Former Confessions Were Wrong from Them.

Constantinople, March 18.—At the first day of the trial of the nineteen Bulgarians accused of belonging to the revolutionary committee at Sofia and of fomenting disorder in Salonica, Monastir and Kossove, recently begun at Salonica, a sensation was created by a declaration of two of the accused that the confessions previously made by them were extorted by the use of the bastinado and by other ill treatment to which they were subjected while in prison. Now they deny the charges brought against them.

Troop Ship Towed In.

Island of Ascension, March 18.—The British steamer Norham Castle, which sailed from Southampton March 2, via Madeira, March 6, for Port Natal (Durban) with 337 troops and mails on board, has arrived here in tow of the British steamer Tongarito from London Feb. 27, via Teneriffe, March 6 for Table Bay. The Norham Castle burst her

Celebrate King Christian's Birthday.
Copenhagen, March 18.—Dowager Empress Alexander of Russia will arrive here tomorrow and will remain until after the celebration of the eighty-third anniversary of the birth of her father, King Christian IX.
The king and queen of England were expected to be present at the celebration, but have postponed their visit until later in the year.

New Dervish Movement.
London, March 18.—A special dispatch from Cairo, Egypt, says a new dervish movement is said to have occurred in the southern part of the Sudan.

berlin, March 30—A dispatch received here from Swatow says that on the demand of the German consul at Swatow the district governor of Hsiang is being dismissed on account of his anti-Christian attitude and his dilatoriness in dealing with German alms.

Two Chinese participants in the anti-american riots have been beheaded at a Ping.

Thomas R. Cutler, manager of the Utah Sugar company, has returned from his eastern trip.

D. P. McDonald, of Denver, special representative of the Fairbanks and Morse Scales and Mining machinery co., is a guest at the Knutsford.

Bishop O. F. Whitney, and his son, ace, of the Herald staff, will leave this week for a brief rest in San Francisco.

Boise Evening Capitol: George D. Anderson, the well known business man of
