CROWDSTHRONGSTREETS

Due Military Precautions Have Peen Taken.

English Colony Sees Where Many Paid Anglophobes Are to Start the Trouble-Counter Demonstrations May Add to the Fuel of Discord-French Officials Assert That Order Will Be Maintained, and Say They Have No Fears of Rioting-Sympathies of the People of Marseilles With the Boers.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 20.—Former President Kruger will probably land here Thursday, instead of tomorrow. Bad weather is reported in the Mediterranean, and the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which he is a passenger, may hug the coast of the Gulf of Genoa in preference to heading direct for Marseilles, so as to avoid the cross sea. She will thus reach this port tomorrow evening, instead of tonight. Every preparation, however, has been made for Mr. Kruger's possible landing tomorrow morning. The police and military are held in readiness, and the Hoer reception committee has not made any change in the arrangements for the reception at the dock. Workmen have been busy erecting flagstaffs at the waterside at La Joliette and at the outer dock, where the steam launch, with Mr. Kruger on board, will land.

It is certain that Mr. Kruger's arrival will be the occasion for a great popular demonstration along the route from the dock to the hotel, which is situated on the principal boulevard, known as the Cannebiere. It is equally certain that the formal proceedings will not be invested with the importance which the occasion warrants, owing to the abstention from them of the prefect, mayor and other functionaries in their official capacity.

News of Mr. Kenger. A surprise came today in the shape of the arrival here of Eloff, Mr. Kruger's private secretary, who left the Gelderland at Port Said and same aboad on a French Eloff left Mr. Kruger in perfect health and spirits. The president occupies three cabins, situated in the stern of the ship. His dining room is decorated with the portraits of the Dutch royal family.

They said they knew Mr. Kruger also appreciated American sym-pathy, and hoped it would lead to prac-tical favors to the cause of his country.

The delegates, however, were unable say exactly what Mr. Kruger would de-cide to do after landing in France. There is much talk in Marseilles to the effect that a counter-demonstration will occur, or that anti-English outcries may be raised, which would result in street dis-orders. But neither the prefect nor the American consulate officials attach the lightest importance to these rumors. A pro-Boer committee has issued a call to the people to cheer for Mr. Kruger and the Boers, but to refrain from any Anglo-

PUGET SOUND NAVAL STATION TO HAVE EXTENSIVE EQUIPMENT.

Rear Admiral Endicott, Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks of the Navy Department, Adds His Recommendations to Those of Admirals Hichborn and Bradford.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer.

ASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—Rear Admiral Endicott, chief of the bureau of yards and docks of the navy department, adds his commendations to those already made by Rear Admiral Hichborn and Rear Admiral Bradford for an extensive equipment at Puget Sound naval station.

In his annual report to the secretary of the navy, made public today, Rear Admiral Endicott repeats substantially the recommendations of the other bureau chiefs, calling for new expenditures at Bremerton amounting to $653,000. He adds the following important item: Torpedo boat storage plant to cost $250,000.

This is the last of the plants of this kind named by the bureau of construction and repair as among those he regards as important to be provided at an early date.

On account of the very long stretch of coast upon the Pacific, with only two naval stations, and these several hundred miles apart, provision for storing torpedo boats at Puget Sound, near our northern border, where they can be quickly mobilized for any operations in that vicinity, is considered of much importance.

The number of appropriations recommended for this station, which are of small extent, is large, comprising a very large majority of the total. Those regarded as of importance are the ordinary, usual and necessary improvements attaching to a naval station. No remarks setting forth the necessity for which each is needed is deemed necessary.

These are given as the expenditures at Bremerton during the fiscal year ending June last: Work of improvements, $70,627; repairs and preservation, $13,307; maintenance, $7,707; civil establishment, $4,608; total, $96,249.

Rear Admiral Endicott says that an appropriation should be made for improving the channel entrance to the Mare Island navy yard, as it is out of the question for the largest ships to enter there at present.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20.—Delegates repre-senting thirty-seven industrial organiza-tions, local and national, called together to take action looking to the passage of senate bill No. 1.4%, better known as Cullom's bill to amend the interstate comongress which says:

"This is a measure in which the business interests of the country are largely more concerned than in any other that has recently been brought to the attention of congress, and its enactment will more directly affect a larger number of citizens than any other now pending. The bill has been before the public during the past twelve months and has been freely discussed in the public press with almost unanimous approval.

"It has been formally indersed by nearly all the commercial bodies of the country of any importance, and the demand for its immediate enactment from all sections of the country seems to be universal. This convention, therefore, earnestly desires that your honorable body will give this measure the precedence to which his importance seems to entitle R and afford speedy relief to the public from prevailing evils in the transportation of the country, which the present law has proved inadequate to remedy, by the early enactment of the aforesaid bill."

The cierks of the German National bank who are working with Receiver Tucker's experts today discovered another plan operated by Brown. When a check was en-tered, October 21, for $145, he entered it as $3,000.45, and got the benefit of the $1,000. On the same date he put "F in front of an entry of $150, and got $2,000 more. The experts say that Brown repectedly credited nimself with $1,000, $2,000 and $1,000 deposits when he did not deposit anything, but took out that amount soon any of these transactions. The first soit brought in the case of the bank was instituted today by Receiver Tucker. It was in the nature of a blanket attachment on all the property of Frank M. Brown, and in to cover $2.000 of the shortage. This amount is alleged to have been taken within the past twelve months, and includes the first items dis-covered in the shortage.

Tonight Commissioner Leonard, on the affidavita of the examiners, issued a warrant for the arrest of Frunk M. McKinley Sees Where $20,000,-000 Can Be Saved.

Special Dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 26.—The president, at the regular meeting of the cabinet today, announced to the members that he should recommend in his forthcoming message to congress such changes in the war revenue law as will amount to a reduction of $20.00,000 a year in the internal revenue taxation of the country. internal revenue taxation of the country. He said that he had reached this decision after careful consultation with the secretary of the treasury and with leading members of the senate finance committee. members of the senate finance committee, and the house ways and means committee.

Mr. Mckinley did not undertake to say what parts of the present law should be amended or repeated, preferring to leave that to congress to decide. He insets, however, that the prospective necessary expenditures of the government and the probable receipts from various sources permit a reduction of at least $20.00.00 a year in the way of taxes and that no time should be lost in removing the burden of taxation to that extent.

time should be lost in removing the bur-den of taxation to that extent.

Senator Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee, expressed the opinion the other day that a good desi more than half, if not all of the war taxes could be removed without detriment to the government finances within the next three months. Furthermore, he thought there-should be no more tinkering with the revenue laws for the four years of Presi-dent McKinley's second administration. dent McKinley's second administration.
