The week just past was an unneually quiet one. There seemed to be a luli in matters social. There were fe v indoor gatherings, the parties, pionics and general outings of the previous weeks baying been sufficiently numerous, it would appear, to call for a pause in this seasummer gaiety. M'ile Rhes gave two excellent performances the first of the week and musical entertainments were offered by a very proficient company of strollers and by a skillful zither artist. The week closed with another large excursion on that popular steamer, the Olympian.

MLLE, BHEA. MILE. RHEA.

Mile. Rhea appeared again in Seattle for two evenings in the first part of last week, and gave two excellent performances. She brought out the two comedies, "The Widow," and "The Country Girl," both of which were received with much favor. Undoubtedly she is seen to greater advantage in comedy than in any other style of play. Her work in the two pieces above mentioned was excellent, the general opinion being that her impersonation of "The Widow" was the most artistic effort she has yet made. The supporting company was good, and the costuming rich and elaborate.

Professor Lannep entertained a rather small but certainly appreciative andi-ence on Friday evening at Turn Verein Hall. The programme was not carried out as arranged, owing to the necessa-ry absence of some of these who had thought of assisting. The piano, violin, cornet and zither selections which were given proved to be contactually given proved to be quite enjoyable, however, and were listened to with AFTERNOON RECEPTION. Mrs. J. F. McNaught gave a delight ful reception on the afternoon of Thurs day last, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Hodge, and sister. Miss Hodge, of Bloomington, Illinois. She was assisted Bloomington, Illinois. She was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by Mrs. James McNaught and Mrs. Kimball. There large was attendance and the affair proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the season. Among those present during the afternoon were Mesdames Haller, Harrington, Strave, Carkeck, Parker, of Olympis; MacCulsky, of Portland; McMicken, Stewart. Grant, Leary, Boone, Green, Russell, Squire, Grasse, Mackintoeb, Furth, Terry, Scurry, H. H. Lewis, Osgood, Yesler, Forrest, Pamphrey, Whittleeey, De Wolfe, Jennings, Taylor, Thornell, Frank Hauferd, Butler, Bloomington, Ill.; and Kimball. The Misses Jones, Haller, Struve, Terry, Blanchard, Emery, Green, James and Anna Sparling.

An elegant lunch party was given by Mrs. W. E. Boone, Seventh and Alder streets, on Tussday afternoon, in honor of Miss Davis, of Philadelphia, who was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Taylor. Miss Davis is a niece of Horace Davis, the celebrated jurist of San Francisco, and is a coustn of Mrs. Taylor. She came to the Coast with the expursion party which recently visited Seattle and remained several days visiting relatives remained several days visiting relatives in this city. Those present at the lunch were Miss Davis, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Thornell, Mrs. Haller, Miss Haller, Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Arthur.

Mrs. Hawkins, of Fort St was in the city last Thursday.

E. W. Pardy, of Utsalady Seattle during the past week.

A party of ladies and gentlemen made an excursion and pionic across the lake on Friday evening. The steamer Edith met the party at Laurel Shade and con-veyed them to Houghton. A good time was enjoyed. A call was made on Mrs. Frank Curtis and a delicious repast of strawberries and cream partaken of. Those making up the party were Miss Edith Sanderson, Mrs. Dr. E. C. Kilbourne, Miss Hettie Greene, Miss Agnes Greene, Miss Bertha Piper, Miss Eva Gilliland, Miss Euma Atkins, Miss Minnie Burwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sowman, George A. Coleman, Dr. E. C. Mrs. O. B. Johnson entertained a number of her friends on last Thursday afternoon at her home on Seneca street, near the University. The guests were principally ladies from Port Townsend who were in Seattle during the past week attending the W. C. T. U. Convention. Those present were Mrs. L. B. Hastings, Mrs. Captain Hinds and Mrs. Wilson, of Port Townsend, Mrs. M.A. Meany, F. H. Winslow and Professor and Mrs. O.B. Johnson, of Seattle.

chartauqua Assembly Fon 1887. All who are looking forward to the summer assembly at Gardner's Beach, from July 18th to 29th, will be interested to know that Rev. D. J. Pieros, President of the Board, did not forget Chautauqua interests during his visit in Wyoming and the East. He writes from Chicago that the Puget Sound Assembly is being closely watched by interested parties in the East, some of whom are expected here this summer. A com-

Assembly. Prof. G. G. Groff, of Lewisburg University, Pennsylvanis, and the author of several works on plant life, etc., will be at the Assembly during most of the session. Mr. Pierce has met such prominent Chautauqua leaders as Prof. W. C. Wilkinson, of New York, Dr. J. L. Huriburt, of New Jersey, and Rev. W. A. Duncan, of New York, who premised to direct attention to work on this shore, in their respective circles, and strangers from the East may be expected to drop in at almost any time. Arrangements have also been made to hold a Territorial Sunday School Convention for Washington in connection with the Chautauqua Assembly on Wednesday and Thursday, July 20th and 21st. E. G. Wheeler, Secretary of the International Sunday School Convention for the Northwest, and Rev. B.
