

MILLER PLEDGES REAL COOPERATION

Republican Candidate for Governor Points to Smith's Failure With Legislature.

GREETED AT ROCHESTER

Says Opponent's Epithets and Abuse Are Only Signals of Distress.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
ROCHESTER, Oct. 22.—Rochester gave Nathan L. Miller, Republican nominee for Governor, a rousing welcome this evening, the hall being packed to the doors. In the name of last evening Gov. Smith had accused Judge Miller of devoting too much attention to the national campaign and neglecting State issues. This evening Judge Miller replied, saying in part:
"You have observed that the Democratic standard bearer in this State is exhibiting signs of distress, for in your city last night he started to use the same kind of language that Candidate Cox has been using. Referring to me he used the word 'demagogue,' and he said something about cold and deliberate attempts at deception, and I think he said something about hypocrisy."
"Well, when a candidate gets to using expressions of that sort he is merely signifying his appreciation that he is in trouble. But he didn't wait even for the canvass to begin to strike his colors. He struck them before he got back from San Francisco, where he and Mr. Murphy had such a conspicuous hand in selecting Mr. Cox and his platform declaring for this wonderful covenant without change, because he forgot the name of his candidate before he got back to his own State."

To Cooperate With Legislature.
Coming down to State issues, Judge Miller said: "Deserting his national ticket, the Governor has undertaken to make a canvass upon the things he has not done and he assigns two excuses, one of them a Republican Legislature. He has not failed to take credit for everything that a Republican Legislature has done for the last twenty years, but he says that he has not been able to redeem his promises because he has not been able to cooperate with the Republican Legislature. Well, there is a very simple remedy for that situation. I will cooperate with a Republican Legislature, to promote the interests of all the people of this State."
"His other excuse is that he is powerless to do anything for the people or to stop the mounting costs of your government until he can get a constitutional amendment to change the form of our State government and he is going up and down the State trying to make an issue on what he calls his tremendous reform, a proposal to consolidate State departments. And I want to say just a word about that, and I ask you to note I am not going to use any epithets, but I ask you to draw your own conclusions."

The Consolidation Proposed.
"The Governor says that a Republican Legislature defeated his great proposal to consolidate State departments for fear that it would make him Presidential timber. He is admonishing me that I am running for Governor and not for President. Well, I guess he is thinking a great deal more about being President than I am, because all I am thinking about in that respect is to do my little bit to help elect Warren G. Harding President of the United States."
"Now what is the truth? The truth is that the last Republican Legislature adopted the proposal to consolidate State departments. Everybody is for that. But it is not the Governor's patent. He claims it, but he borrowed it from another Republican body, the Constitutional Convention of 1912. And do you remember what happened to the constitution which was submitted by that body? Do you remember what Mr. Smith and Mr. Murphy and Tammany Hall did to the constitution of 1912 which undertook to consolidate departments? Well, if you don't remember I will tell you and you can verify my statement. They helped to bury it under a majority of 600,000 in this State. But the shoe was on the other foot when the Governor became Governor."

Again Assails Judge Miller in Discussing State Issue.
Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
JAMESTOWN, Oct. 22.—Gov. Smith wound up his day's campaigning at a mass meeting in Jamestown, at which he recited in much detail the things he had done for the good of the State while Governor and reiterated his complaint that his opponent, Nathan L. Miller, would not discuss State issues.
Gov. Smith took Judge Miller to task for his attitude on water power development. Commenting on Judge Miller's statement that he was in favor of State and national cooperation for the development of the waterway, Gov. Smith said: "All he can do is to support or oppose the action of Congress. I can do that."
Speaking of the canal system Gov. Smith said: "I have been interested in the canal as far back as 1911. Since I became Governor I urged a bill through the Legislature and signed it after it was passed for the improvement of the terminals and the construction of grade elevators."
"The trouble is we have in this State a small but determined group of men who have enough power and strength and influence to stop water power development. They want private control, and that is why Judge Miller is in favor of State and national cooperation."
Senator Joseph Robinson of Arkansas accompanied Gov. Smith and preceded him on the platform with a vigorous endorsement and defense of the League of Nations.

Date Them From Armistice in Rochester Speech.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 22.—Herbert Hoover, who spoke at a Republican mass meeting here to-night in the interest of the candidacy of Judge Miller, declared that "the Democratic Administration in Washington has been a failure in its broad statesmanship ever since the armistice."
"In addition to the failures to make those compromises necessary to secure the League of Nations and the peace of the world the Democratic party has failed to provide those policies of domestic reconstruction that we so critically need. Its action on social questions has been uncertain and in the main reactionary."
Mr. Hoover said he believed that if party government was to survive a given party must take all the responsibilities of government, both executive and legislative.
