Cotton Goods Continue Firm.

The local gray goods market displayed continued strength yesterday, although trading was not anything too brisk. An increased demand is believed to be approaching. Mills are firm in their demands and confidently anticipate higher quotations in the near future. Holders continued to quote the standard 38% inch. 64—60 print cloths, at 8% cents. Asking prices for the 68—72s ruled at 9% cents. The market in sheetings was quiet, but prices remained firm.
