Proposed Legislation Provides for
Court of Inquiry to Pass Upon
Negro Soldiers' Cases.

LINCOLN BIRTHDAY A HOLIDAY

House Excludes Item Providing
Funds to Defray Expenses of Army
Cadets Attending Inauguration at Washington—Importation of Opium
Is Prohibited.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.—Seventy-five bills on the calendar of the senate were passed today. The consideration of these measures, most of which were of a local character, of minor importance, consumed nearly the entire session of the senate. Senator Foraker attempted to get consideration for the Aldrich substitute bill providing for a court of inquiry to pass upon the qualifications of the Twenty-fifth regiment, charged with having shot up Brownsville, August 13-14, 1906, but postponed, making a motion for that purpose in order that Senator McLaughlin of Mississippi might speak on the Brownsville affair, tomorrow.

Will Try Again.
Mr. Foraker announced that after McLaughlin's speech he would endeavor to obtain action on the bill.

The senate passed without amendment a house bill declaring February 12, 1909, the centenary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln to be a legal holiday and recommending a general observance of that day.

At 3:40 o'clock p. m. the senate adjourned.

HOUSE SHUTS OUT CADETS.

Unless Senate Reverses Action, West
Pointers Can't Attend Inauguration.

Unless the senate comes to their rescue the West Point cadets will not be able to attend the inauguration of the Fourth of March at the expense of the government. The cadets have been one of the attractions of the inaugural ceremonies for many years past.

By a point of order an item providing funds for the cadets' trip to Washington was stricken from the military appropriation bill.

Another item removed from the bill was an appropriation for the construction of an asylum for refugees in time of war and another for a storehouse on Corridor island in Manila Bay.

No Pension for Judges.
On account of time consumed with bills under suspension of the rules the consideration by the house of the appropriation bill was not completed. Under suspension the house passed the Payne bill prohibiting the importation of opium but refused to pass the senate bill pensioning federal judges.

The Bennett bill for the expatriation of aliens convicted of a felony was also denied passage.

A limitation was placed on the scope of the Olmsted special committee to investigate appropriation for and the work of the secret service of the various departments.

The house adjourned at 5:28 o'clock p. m.

STUART'S WITHDRAWAL COMES AS A SURPRISE

Year that Mr. Stuart was called to Europe by the serious illness of Mrs. Stuart, and spent some weeks there at that time. It was thought that would improve sufficiently to return to America but she did not. She was then traveling in Switzerland, and later went to Paris, where she has been for more than six weeks. Mr. Stuart returned to America some weeks ago.

Dr. George Ben Johnson, the lifelong friend of Mr. Stuart, has been in correspondence with the physicians of Paris, who are attending Mrs. Stuart and has kept up with the case at all times. He says that the reports that Mrs. Stuart is in an exceedingly dangerous condition are true, and that it will be three or four months before she will be able to begin the trip back to the United States.

Much Regret Expressed.
Men in all walks of life were today

discussing the withdrawal of Mr. Stuart, and there was general regret for it is well known that Mr. Stuart was easily the favorite in this city, where he has made his home for some years, serving as a member of the state corporation commission and previously as a member of the constitutional convention. Mrs. Stuart spent much of her time here, and was entertained by the fashionable set. She had her home here later and that was the scene of many of the most elegant affairs the city has witnessed. Mrs. Stuart was as popular as her husband.

Mr. Tucker's Comments.
Harry St. George Tucker, when asked about the withdrawal of Mr. Stuart, made the following statement: "I greatly regret the cause of Mr. Stuart's withdrawal. No one honors him more than I do. I feel, of course, more confident of my election than I have ever done before. That is all I can say tonight."

Mr. Glass Undecided.
"I have nothing to say at this time regarding my intentions and the gubernatorial nomination," said Congressman Carter Glass of Lynchburg, in a conversation with the News-Leader this afternoon.

"The withdrawal of Mr. Stuart leaves the matter in an altogether different situation from a week ago. I regret that Mr. Stuart has been compelled by the circumstances to withdraw. I shall have something to say in the matter certainly before the end of the present week."

Mr. Glass will leave for Washington this evening and will meet some of his friends in that city and so over the situation.

All Eyes on Glass.
To the neutral observer, it would appear that much depends upon the attitude of Mr. Glass. This assumes that should he decide to enter the race, he would do so as an advocate of state-wide prohibition. But the state convention of the Anti-Saloon League has not been held. It will occur in Norfolk this month. Judge Mann will address it. It has been predicted that he would declare for state-wide prohibition. With two candidates running on that platform the liquor vote should be solidly for Tucker, who is a local optician. As a matter of fact the politicians guessing. It will be some days before they really know where they are "at."

Men Supporters Jubilant.
Friends of Judge William Hodges Mann in this city make no secret of their delight at the retirement of Hon. Henry Carter Stuart from the gubernatorial race, and one and all declare that it unquestionably means the election of their favorite.

Although they have ever been loathe to admit it, Mr. Stuart's candidacy long has been a thorn in the side of Judge Mann's constituents, and more recently the matter has been a sore subject with them, for they could not fail to realize the strength of the former corporation commissioner.

And here in Richmond particularly Mr. Stuart's strength was most noticeable, and it was conceded on all sides that he would sweep the town. It was only a question of the size of the plurality.

The most conservative estimates placed the lead at somewhere between 1,000 and 1,500—in fact, practically every man one met was a follower of Stuart.

The Earth Changeling.
In the White twilight of the falling snow.

Like a new look on a beloved face,
A mystery has come on all we know;
Old certainties of distance and of space

Familiar lines of mountain, bluff and hill
Color and form are spirited away
In shadow of whiteness; earth and air
Are still

As if in breathless sleep an angel lay
O'er brown earth of our common days;
The soul
Of our age-long defeat, success and toil

The garment of the sorrow of the years
Slips from thy shining shoulders, and appears
This exquisite white wonder of a thing

Shown to earth's children for their worshiping.
—Ethel P. Waxham in the February Appleton's.

TONE WAS RATHER FIRM

Growing Lethargy Is Noted in Speculative Interest—Money is Abundant.

GAS TAKES A PLUNGE DOWNWARD

Refusal of Supreme Court to Grant
Petition of Consolidated Gas Company for Rehearing of 80-Cent Rate
Question a Depressant.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The day's developments were regarded as negatively favorable to stock market values and a rather firm tone of the market was the consequence.

This firmness did not obscure the fact of the growing lethargy of the speculative interest which left the dealings dull at times to the point of stagnation. The effect of this influence on the room traders was that no large volume of outside liquidation was forced on the market over the week end by the dropping tendency of prices last week and the sharp decline with which the week ended. The refusal of the Supreme Court to grant the petition of the Consolidated Gas Company for a rehearing of the 80-cent gas appeal caused another downward plunge in the price of that security the 115% which the price touched being lower than before the rally in the stock when the petition was filed. Reading was notably strong with influence on the whole list.

Money continues in abundant supply and no ripple was induced by the further engagement of gold for export to South America. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,446,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.
(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 1.—A liberal decrease in the visible supply of wheat in the United States and Canada for the week contributed in a large measure to a sharp advance in wheat prices here today. At the close prices were up 1/4 to 1/2 a 1/2. Corn and oats closed firm but provisions were weak.

FRESH AIR IN THE HOUSE.

Matter of Much Importance That Is Too Frequently Neglected.

During cold weather, when houses must necessarily be kept closed most of the time, extra precautions should be taken to keep the air pure. No matter how low the temperature, the windows and doors on the first floor should be opened for at least 15 minutes the first thing in the morning. If the cook or maid be instructed to do this as soon as she arises, the house will be nicely warmed again by the time the family is down.

After each meal there should be another thorough airing of the lower floor. No matter how perfect the system of ventilation, it is impossible to prevent cooking odors. This airing is doubly necessary should there be smokers in the family.

Each bedroom should have the windows flung wide open until after breakfast. If this is not done for the sake of daintiness, it should never be forgotten in the interest of health.

In a family sitting-room there should be some arrangements made by which there is a constant change of air without draft. It can be managed in no other way, the window should be raised a few inches and a screen placed in front of it.

There is no surer sign of bad house-keeping than a house which has an odor of any kind, and the custom of some women to burn scented wafers in their rooms in lieu of fresh air is not to be copied.

Make Want Advertising Your "Banker"

When you need to "raise some money," try to accomplish that feat through the want ads. Sell something that you can do without—or secure a liberal loan on real estate without brokerage fees—or dispose of securities or jewelry, or machinery, or furniture, or musical instruments or articles of clothing, or books, or pictures, or horses, carriages, or bric-a-brac, or find a "backer" or partner, or a buyer for your real estate. In any of these ways you can make the WANT AD. your "BANKER."
